

AFSCME Turns Down City's Offer

By STEVE JONES And TOM SPRING

The city of Circleville and representatives of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees, AFL-CIO, have reached a stalemate in contract negotiations. A strike action was voted on the eve of Pumpkin Show, a time when the city's population expands almost 10-fold every day.

Pat Nelson, vice president of Labor Relations Bureau Inc., a private consulting firm representing the city in the negotiations, said that at 4 p.m. Tuesday he received a telephone call at his home from a union representative saying the city's final offer had been unanimously rejected by the membership, which numbers 41 of the city's more than 80 employees.

According to Nelson, the representative said the membership wanted 50 cents an hour wage increase over and above the final offer made by the city, and said if the demand was not met the city would be faced with an employee walkout. The union representative gave Nelson a deadline of 8 p.m. Tuesday to meet the demand.

City council met in executive session Tuesday with Nelson and union representatives in an effort to avert the threatened walkout, but the city would not move from its final offer.

In a statement issued to the news media following the meeting between negotiators of both sides, Nelson said: "We are at this point unable to accomplish successful completion of negotiations in spite of a tentative agreement reached in a bargaining session Oct. 16 with the local union leadership. At that time the local president, Richard Hedges, endorsed the city's package."

The principal parts of the 3-year contract offered by the city were:

1. A grievance procedure;
2. A Christmas bonus plan allowing employees to elect to take a cash settlement for accrued vacation time, plus a 15 percent increment (This would average about $175 per city employee according to Nelson.);

3. Two additional holidays bringing to eight the total number of holidays for city employees;
4. A three year contract beginning on the date of the signing of the contract;

5. A retroactive bonus of $150 per man;
6. A salary increase of $350 per employee the first year, plus the city would pick up one half of the family health insurance plan for the married employees which would mean an additional cost to the city of $255.12 per employee (the city already pays the employee's share of health insurance);

7. A salary increase of $550 the second year of the contract plus the city would pick up an additional $177.56 of the family share of hospitalization.
8. A wage increase of $650 the third year of the contract.

Nelson said the union's demand of an additional 50 cents per hour increase would cost the city nearly a quarter of a million dollars over the three year period of the proposed contract. His estimate was based on the total number of city employees.

"Our principal concern is that we have an agreement that is within the ability of the taxpayers to pay," he stated.

Atwood Jones, who is serving the city as employee relations officer during the negotiations, sent the following telegram to Warren Jennings, executive director of AFSCME Council No. 53:

"As a result of the reportedly unanimous rejection by our membership of our contract proposal, we are forced to set the following conditions:

1. The offer as it stands will remain effective until noon this date (Oct. 19);
2. That if this offer is not accepted by that time it is our position that all offers by the city of Circleville to the AFSCME membership have been withdrawn.

"We regret that this condition has been caused by the bad faith bargaining techniques of your local union negotiating committee.

"In response to the professionalism exhibited by your international union staff representative and in accordance with city ordinance 23-77 we will continue to recognize your union."

Robert C. Todd, AFSCME staff representative, is assisting the local union negotiating committee in the sessions with the city.

At 8 p.m. Tuesday about 40 employees of the city arrived at Fire House No. 2 and voted to begin sick leave. Thirty-six then left to attend council meeting while the rest remained at the fire house to await the outcome of the city council meeting.

At 8:15, Mayor Frank Barnhill, Councilman David Goldschmidt, Nelson, Todd, local union representatives met in closed session in the mayor's office. At 8:25 p.m. Todd and the employees walked out and Gold-

Pumpkin Patches

You can't miss the new Pumpkin Show information booth. It's right in the middle of Court and Main.

We officially opened our visit to Pumpkin Show at 7 a.m. today with pancakes and sausage at the Kiwanis Booth. There were about a dozen members of the Ashville Kiwanis Club there for "an interclub" and early breakfast.

Everybody is wondering what "job action" the union members among the city employees are planning and what affect it will have on Pumpkin Show. So far only World War II has been a big enough disaster to halt the show so we doubt that any job action will diminish the enthusiasm of visitors here.

The weatherman is calling for fair weather and Pumpkin Show officials are predicting record crowds.

Hungarian grey squash from Wisconsin brought here by Ginny Heis weighed 315 pounds — a juvenile whose growth was stunted by early frosts in Wisconsin. The champion was brought in by Mark Cook — and weighed 343 pounds. Local growers said this was a poor season because of the extended drought this spring.

Winner of the Grand Champion Pumpkin Pie Bake A Pie Contest at the 71st annual Pumpkin Show was Mrs. David (Mary) Goldschmidt, 901 Atwater Ave.

Champion pie was baked by Mrs. Franklin Strous, 26666 Armstrong Road, Laurelville.

CHAMPS AGAIN — The title for biggest squash at the Circleville Pumpkin Show once again goes to the Coon family. This year's whopper was grown by Mark Coon, and tipped the scales at 343 pounds. Second place honors went to Frank Coon with a 288½ pound specimen. Third was Bob Peters with a 257 pounder, and in fourth place was Willard England, whose entry checked in at 255½ pounds.

City Council Transfers Funds

Circleville City Council Tuesday transferred funds to accounts which were intentionally under-appropriated at the beginning of the year to balance the budget.

These appropriations were necessary to pay the expenses for the remainder of the year.

A transfer of $9,000 from the anti-recession fund to the service department materials account was approved. The following amounts were transferred from the general fund:

$650 to supplies and incidentals, police department; $1,200 to equipment, police department; $2,450 to insurance; $3,500 to telephone, power and water; $35,000 to the fire department payroll.

Also approved by council was legislation outlining the procedure by which the department of water and sewage could dispose of any city property to which it was entrusted.

An ordinance authorizing the board of public utilities to enter into a contract for engineering and construction of new water lines was held for a second reading.

This ordinance will permit the department of water and sewage to spend the $347,000 Economic Development Grant it has been awarded to construct a new water line from the water plant on the Island Road to the city. This is to be a 24-inch water line from the plant to Ted Lewis Park, a 16-inch line from there to Parkway St. and a 12-inch line from there.

Charles Taylor, utilities director, said that in order to qualify for the grant, bids must be advertised Nov. 7, opened Nov. 22, the contract awarded Nov. 29 and construction begun by Dec. 13. If construction has not begun on Dec. 15, the city will lose the grant.

Councilman John Jenkins recommended the legislation be held until the next meeting in order to give all council members an opportunity to study it. It was pointed out by John Bowers, chairman of the public utilities board, that this is a 100 percent grant by the federal government and would involve no expense to the city.

In reports to council, member Tom Wells said he had been contacted by residents of East High Street on through trucks carrying gravel. "I think we should look at a new truck route very closely," Wells said.

Safety Director John McGinnis said that it was his intentions to proceed with the new route as soon as signs can be made. "We will try this for a 6-month period to see what effect it will have," McGinnis said.

The safety director also reported on a problem that had been encountered when a pole had been set for the traffic control lights at the entrance to Ted Lewis Park. The pole was apparently above a sewer to a home in the area and although the sewer was not damaged at the time the pole was set, it has since broken.

He made the following recommendations for traffic-pedestrian safety at the South Court Street School:

Proposal No. 1 — Install a traffic control light with walk-no walk signs at the intersection of Court and Town Streets with a control accessible to children. This light would be green on court street at all times except when activated. Install sidewalks on the west side of Court Street. Limit parking on South Court Street during school days and school hours. Install rumble strips on South Court Street beginning at Crites Road. Provide strict radar enforcement of the speed limit.

His personal proposal was nearly similar in all respects except that he would recommend that a school crossing guard be employed rather than the installation of the traffic control light. He recommended council act on his second proposal.

Councilman Wells pointed out there are other schools in the city where there are no sidewalks. However, Councilman Dixie Watters recommended that the city proceed with the safety director's recommendation and consider the other schools on an individual basis.

It was pointed out by McGinnis that council will have to determine who will pay for the sidewalks — the property owners or the city.

Debbie Stumbo, a spokesman for South Court Street residents and parents of children attending the elementary school, said that either of the proposals would be acceptable. She

City Workers Report To Jobs Wednesday

Circleville Mayor Frank Barnhill said today that despite reports City employees intended to strike, all City workers had reported for work for the morning shifts and that all City business is being conducted as normal.

Circleville, site of the 71 annual Pumpkin Show which last year attracted over a quarter of a million people, has been negotiating with City workers since August. Members of the Police Department are not involved in the negotiations. Negotiations affect only those employees, numbering approximately 41, in the fire, service, and utility departments.

Barnhill declined to comment on the specifics of the issues involved in contract negotiations, saying, "We have retained Labor Relations Bureau, Incorporated of Columbus to handle our Employee Relations. They are the professional negotiators and under their advice I must decline to comment on specific issues."

Barnhill said, "This year's Pumpkin Show should be bigger and better than ever. None of our labor difficulties have spilled over to affect the Pumpkin Show and since the history of the festival has been one of total community participation we do not anticipate that the Pumpkin Show will be hurt by our disagreements with City workers this year."

Dick Hedges, a member of the Circleville Fire Department and president of the local membership, said today they are "waiting for word to come down from Columbus" before taking further action.

Hedges said the membership has not mentioned the word "strike" in talking to the city's negotiators. He did indicate that some form of "job action" may be taken.

Deer Creek Lodge To Be Heated By Solar Energy

Department of Natural Resources (ODNR) by the federal Energy Research and Development Administration (ERDA).

Saturday Mail Delivers May Survive

WASHINGTON (AP) — Saturday mail deliveries and small post offices stand a better chance of survival following action by a House committee to prevent their elimination.

The House Post Office Committee, voting Tuesday to reorganize the Postal Service, included guarantees that Saturday mail deliveries and rural post offices won't be done away with to save money.

The legislation says these services must be continued and authorizes approximately $2 billion for them and other postal operations. The Postal Service received about $1.5 billion in the fiscal year that ended Sept. 30.

The 19-4 vote sent the legislation to the full House, which may not get to the bill in this session.

The Postal Service has said eliminating Saturday deliveries would save $412 million a year.

And the service, following a year's moratorium, is once more gradually closing small, uneconomical facilities.

Rep. Charles H. Wilson, D-Calif., says Saturday deliveries are important to many Americans. Country post offices, he says, are a part of small town life.

Wilson is a co-sponsor of the Postal Service reorganization bill.

"The post office in a lot of communities — even though it may not be profitable — serves as a meeting place," Wilson said in a telephone interview Tuesday.

"The post office is not supposed to be a break-even project. People throughout the country should be entitled to the same type of service.

"It's as important as Amtrak or public television, which the President is willing to dump billions of dollars into. This affects people in all walks of life."

The Postal Service says it has taken steps to keep a town's identity intact after a post office is closed. That move means small town residents could still receive mail addressed to their communities and towns could keep their listings in the Directory of Post Offices.

The reorganization bill would also return to the President the power to appoint the postmaster general and allow congressional vetoes of rate increases.

"We welcome this opportunity to utilize solar energy in our state lodge operations," said ODNR Director Robert W. Teater. "Solar energy will be used as an alternate fuel for our hot water heating system."

A 10,000 square foot roof collector will heat water which will supply 44 percent of the hot water demand in the guest rooms and kitchen; 93 percent of the indoor pool heating demand; and 21 percent of the lodge space heating needs.

Deer Creek Lodge, to be located 35 miles southwest of Columbus, will have 110 guest units, meeting rooms, dining areas, and indoor and outdoor swimming pools.

In addition to using the solar system to reduce energy costs, the lodge design incorporates many other energy conservation features.

In the architectural design, the use of glass will be kept to a minimum. Where glass is used, a special insulating glass will be installed. A maximum amount of insulation will be used in the roofs and walls, and flow limiters will be installed on shower heads to conserve water.

A water to air heat pump system will have the capability of transferring heat from areas requiring cooling to areas needing heat.

Also, a system will be installed to use outside air to cool the lodge in the evening and cooler summer days. Additionally, a demand system will curtail the use of electricity during peak periods.

The total estimated cost for the solar system is $412,189. The total estimated cost of the Deer Creek Lodge complex is $11 million dollars.

Weather

A weak trough of low pressure moving across Ohio caused some scattered showers this morning but fair weather is following. The skies will clear this afternoon for the Pumpkin Show. High today will be in the upper 50s, lows tonight near 40 and high Thursday in the 60s under sunny skies. Tuesday's high was 63 and the low 43.

Markets

NEW YORK (AP) —The stock market was little changed today, continuing Tuesday's sluggish pattern.

The Dow Jones average of 30 industrial slipped .51 to 820.00 in the first half hour.

Gainers and losers were evenly balanced in the broad tally of New York Stock Exchange-listed issues.

Analysts said many traders were waiting uneasily for the Federal Reserve's weekly report Thursday afternoon on the money supply.

They noted fears of another sharp increase in the basic measure of the money supply that might lead to further credit-tightening by the central bank.

Dow Chemical slipped 1/4 to 28% in active trading. The company reported lower third quarter earnings.

On Tuesday the Dow Jones industrial average edged up .17 to 820.51.

Advances nosed out declines by about an 8-7 margin on the NYSE.

Big Board volume came to 20.13 million shares against 17.34 million in the previous session.

The NYSE's composite common-stock index was unchanged at 51.19.

Nation's Output Increased 15 Percent Since 1975

WASHINGTON (AP) — Treasury Secretary W. Michael Blumenthal acknowledged today that the economy may have grown at a markedly slower rate in the summer, but he said the nation's output has increased by more than 15 per cent since the 1975 recession.

Speaking at the American Bankers Association convention in Houston, Tex., Blumenthal said business has been showing a lack of confidence despite a favorable economic outlook.

As the Commerce Department prepared to release figures on the gross national product for the third quarter, Blumenthal cautioned against relying on the most recent set of statistics to assess the economy.

The figures, he said, "will most likely indicate a marked slowing in the rate of economic growth from the first half of the year." But he said the first six months were unusually strong.

Blumenthal promised that the Carter administration will spell out details of its economic plans for the next few years as it unveils its tax reform program and budget in the coming months.

The Treasury secretary also tried to calm concerns about the value of the dollar, declaring, "A strong and stable dollar is essential both the United States and to the world at large."

"As you know, we now have a substantial trade deficit. But a depreciation of the dollar is not required by that deficit, nor would a depreciation of the dollar erase that deficit," he said.

Government officials were trying to determine if their economic goals for the year would remain on target.

Today's release of the gross national product figures for July, August and September should provide a major clue.

The gross national product — the combined output of goods and services — is the single most important measure of the nation's economic health.

A strong GNP means jobs and production are increasing, but a performance that is too vigorous can also lead to inflation. And two consecutive declines usually mean a recession is setting in.

When the Carter administration took office in January, it set a target of 6 per cent growth for all of 1977, a rate that would mean reduced unemployment. Predictions since then, however, have forecast growth closer to 5 1/2 per cent.

The year began on an unusually strong note, with the GNP rising at an annual rate of 7.5 percent for the first quarter and 6.2 percent in the second, signalling that the nation was continuing to climb out of a recession.

Economists who predicted a slower third quarter growth have been borne out by declines or slower rises in retail sales, factory orders, industrial production and housing starts.

Prospects are still a big question for the fourth quarter, when the economy may begin to feel the impact of various new federal programs to cut unemployment.

Congress has approved spending tax money to stimulate the economy by giving local governments money to hire workers, mostly for construction projects.

One hopeful note for the year's last quarter was the government's report Tuesday that personal income in September was up sharply.

Americans earned eight-tenths of 1 per cent more in September than in August, when the increase was five-tenths of 1 per cent. That extra money could be reflected in retail sales and other indicators this quarter.

The administration is expecting the economy to continue growing at a rate of about 6 per cent through 1978, although it says a few trouble signs may crop up a year from now.

schmidt returned to the regular council meeting.

Todd told the city employees, "The city has made its final offer. Todd said he was asked in the closed session if he expected further job action by the membership and his answer was "yes."

In a statement to the press following the meeting Todd said:

"You can book this. Before Monday we'll do everything possible for a class action suit for the women employed by the city of Circleville for non-compliance of federal EEO wage standards, etc. And a suit like this was tried in Newark, Ohio and a woman received 40 thou."

Todd said that over half of the city employees are not involved in the family insurance program because a street department (maintenance I worker) who makes $3.22 an hour cannot afford to pay $42.56 (his share of the family plan).

"The city has agreed over a three year period to pick up the insurance but the kicker is the wages are so low that the employees cannot afford to buy insurance," Todd said. "And even at the 16 cents per hour increase offered by the city they cannot afford it."

The last pay raise for almost all city employees came Jan. 1, 1976.

One of the city firemen said there is not one married employee of the city who does not work at a second job or whose wife does not work at a job to help pay bills. Another fireman said he and his wife are getting by but he was glad they had no one else to try to support on his income.

Mayor Frank Barnhill said last night "We will do our best to continue services at a normal level."

Indications were last night that the firemen on duty did not leave their posts. The shift normally changes at 7 a.m. each day.

Surrounding volunteer fire departments with which the city has a working agreement have been notified of the situation here. The mayor indicated that the city will still be able to provide the necessary city services and water and sewage services during a walkout.

Members of the Circleville Police Department are not affiliated with AFSCME and are not involved in the job action.

Nelson said that it is the position of the city administration that strikes by governmental employees are illegal in Ohio and that excessive absences and insubordination are subject to disciplinary measures up to and including dismissal from jobs.

He emphasized, however, that it was not the desire of anyone in city government to cause anyone to lose his or her job.

City Council . . .

did note that the safety hazard exists all the time for the residents of the area, even when school is not in session.

Mayor Frank Barnhill appointed Walter H. Nelson, 503 Glenmont Drive, to the Civil Service Commission. The appointment was accepted by council.

Councilman David Goldschmidt reported the city is still having a serious cash flow and that the auditor's statement of Sept. 30 showed a deficit of $32,000 in the general fund as well as deficits in the police and firemen's pension fund and some other funds.

Fire Chief Mike Brown reported that Mike Grant and Mark Lutz had completed 200 hours of fire school training at Lancaster and that three lieutenants had completed a school last week on hazardous chemical spills.

Present at council meeting Tuesday were: Doris Mancini, the new clerk; Council President Joe Bell, members Goldschmidt, Wells, Jenkins, Harold Hoffman, Watters, David Crawford, Steve Jones, Solicitor John Adkins, Fire Chief Mike Brown, and Police Chief Robert Temple.

The regular meeting was preceded by an executive session in which the strike by members of AFSCME was discussed. Council authorized Pat

Nelson, the labor relations consultant, to stand by the city's final offer made to the union negotiators on Sunday.

During the meeting, over 30 city employees put in their appearance, but they walked out before it had concluded.

Friendly Visitors Meet

The monthly meeting of the Friendly Visitors was held at the Pickaway Senior Center recently with about 15 members present.

Two poems, Laughter and Six Sermons Walking, were read by Julia Lemon and birthday and get-well cards were signed by members to send to shut-ins or members who are ill.

Refreshments were served by Ruth Miranda and Jennie Eccard and it was decided Wanda Hamilton and Julia Lemon would have the refreshments for the November meeting. The shut-in visits made by our Friendly Visitors for the month added up to 347. Members present were: Jennie Hoffman, Della Wertman, Jennie Eccard, Ruth Smith, Bea Owens, Ray Beery, Hazel Cline, Ruth Miranda, Leora Sayre, Pauline Jones, Minnie Strawser, and Maneva Ross.

The October shut-in party was cancelled because of the Pumpkin Show and the next meeting will be Nov. 18. The next Friendly Visitors meeting will be Nov. 8th.

Our last shut-in party was held Sept. 21 at the Pickaway Senior Center with 32 persons present.

NEW YORK (AP) —The stock market was little changed today, continuing Tuesday's sluggish pattern.

The Dow Jones average of 30 industrials slipped .51 to 820.01 in the first half hour.

Gainers and losers were evenly balanced in the broad tally of New York Stock Exchange-listed issues.

Analysts said many traders were waiting uneasily for the Federal Reserve's weekly report Thursday afternoon on the money supply.

They noted fears of another sharp increase in the basic measure of the money supply that might lead to further credit-tightening by the central bank.

Dow Chemical slipped 1/4 to 28 1/2 in active trading. The company reported lower third quarter earnings.

On Tuesday the Dow Jones industrial average edged up .17 to 820.51.

Advances nosed out declines by about an 8-7 margin on the NYSE.

Big Board volume came to 20.13 million shares against 17.34 million in the previous session.

The NYSE's composite common-stock index was unchanged at 51.19.

AFSCME Turns . . .

schmidt returned to the regular council meeting.

Todd told the city employees, "The city has made its final offer. Todd said he was asked in the closed session if he expected further job action by the membership and his answer was "yes."

In a statement to the press following the meeting Todd said:

"You can book this. Before Monday we'll do everything possible for a class action suit for the women employed by the city of Circleville for non-compliance of federal EEO wage standards, etc. And a suit like this was tried in Newark, Ohio and a woman received 40 thou."

Todd said that over half of the city employees are not involved in the family insurance program because a street department (maintenance I worker) who makes $3.22 an hour cannot afford to pay $2.56 (his share of the family plan).

"The city has agreed over a three year period to pick up the insurance but the kicker is the wages are so low that the employees cannot afford to buy insurance," Todd said. "And even at the 16 cents per hour increase offered by the city they cannot afford it."

The last pay raise for almost all city employees came Jan. 1, 1976.

One of the city firemen said there is not one married employee of the city who does not work at a second job or whose wife does not work at a job to help pay bills. Another fireman said he and his wife are getting by but he was glad they had no one else to try to support on his income.

Mayor Frank Barnhill said last night "We will do our best to continue services at a normal level."

Indications were last night that the firemen on duty did not leave their posts. The shift normally changes at 7 a.m. each day.

Surrounding volunteer fire departments with which the city has a working agreement have been notified of the situation here. The mayor indicated that the city will still be able to provide the necessary city services and water and sewage services during a walkout.

Members of the Circleville Police Department are not affiliated with AFSCME and are not involved in the job action.

Nelson said that it is the position of the city administration that strikes by governmental employees are illegal in Ohio and that excessive absences and insubordination are subject to disciplinary measures up to and including dismissal from jobs.

He emphasized, however, that it was not the desire of anyone in city government to cause anyone to lose his or her job.

City Council . . .

did note that the safety hazard exists all the time for the residents of the area, even when school is not in session.

Mayor Frank Barnhill appointed Walter H. Nelson, 503 Glenmont Drive, to the Civil Service Commission. The appointment was accepted by council.

Councilman David Goldschmidt reported the city is still having a serious cash flow and that the auditor's statement of Sept. 30 showed a deficit of $32,000 in the general fund as well as deficits in the police and firemen's pension fund and some other funds.

Fire Chief Mike Brown reported that Mike Grant and Mark Lutz had completed 200 hours of fire school training at Lancaster and that three lieutenants had completed a school last week on hazardous chemical spills.

Present at council meeting Tuesday were: Doris Mancini, the new clerk; Council President Joe Bell, members Goldschmidt, Wells, Jenkins, Harold Hoffman, Watters, David Crawford, Steve Jones, Solicitor John Adkins, Fire Chief Mike Brown, and Police Chief Robert Temple.

The regular meeting was preceded by an executive session in which the strike by members of AFSCME was discussed. Council authorized Pat

Nelson, the labor relations consultant, to stand by the city's final offer made to the union negotiators on Sunday.

During the meeting, over 30 city employees put in their appearance, but they walked out before it had concluded.

Friendly Visitors Meet

The monthly meeting of the Friendly Visitors was held at the Pickaway Senior Center recently with about 15 members present.

Two poems, Laughter and Six Sermons Walking, were read by Julia Lemon and birthday and get-well cards were signed by members to send to shut-ins or members who are ill.

Refreshments were served by Ruth Miranda and Jennie Eccard and it was decided Wanda Hamilton and Julia Lemon would have the refreshments for the November meeting. The shut-in visits made by our Friendly Visitors for the month added up to 347. Members present were: Jennie Hoffmann, Della Wertman, Jennie Eccard, Ruth Smith, Bea Owens, Ray Beery, Hazel Cline, Ruth Miranda, Leora Sayre, Pauline Jones, Minnie Strawser, and Maneva Ross.

The October shut-in party was cancelled because of the Pumpkin Show and the next meeting will be Nov. 18. The next Friendly Visitors meeting will be Nov. 8th.

Our last shut-in party was held Sept. 21 at the Pickaway Senior Center with 32 persons present.

Flue Caution

Considering the way last winter's swine flu inoculation program turned out, it is small wonder that so little has been said publicly about flu inoculations of any type this year. That doesn't mean that people who fall into high risk categories shouldn't look into the possibilities of vaccine protection.

Family physicians are the ones to contact with questions about individual protection. There will be no national swine flu inoculation program this year, at least not unless that variant of the disease threatens a new epidemic.

While many health experts are predicting cautiously that this winter will be a mild flu season, with scattered cases of milder strains the only threat, they are hedging their predictions with the observation that flu forecasting "is still an inexact science."

Indeed it is. Because the possibility of future flu epidemics is unpredictable, the elderly and others who are particularly susceptible to flu complications should be checking now with their doctors. If inoculations are recommended, it is time to begin now.

Readers' Write

By JIM BISHOP

One of the popular features of any newspaper is the Letters To The Editor column. It is the voice of the reader, the ultimate judge of free press. He writes missives which boast, bray, condemn, question, assert, plead, indict, irritate, explain, applaud and roar with rage.

He has a license denied to the professional writer. He calls the president a knucklehead or, in another mood, the greatest thing since vitamins. He also differs in another way from the pro — the reader is seldom dull. But then, he is seldom published.

I have an ongoing interest in letters. The longer ones are often pedantic, as though the reader is trying to pit his vocabulary against, say, William Buckley. Often, the short ones are dynamite, stressing cast-iron opinions in 50 words or less.

Some editors — not all — turn the letters column over to junior editors or so-called cub reporters. This is a mistake. Young writers seldom have broad-ranging knowledge and look upon the job of reading gripes and groans as the lowest rung of editorial endeavor.

The opposite is true. The letters editor publishes between 10 and 15 "articles" every day. He is a fool if he doesn't arrogate himself the right to cut and trim the selected ones to their essentials, precisely as the work of all reporters is subject to the surgery of the copy desk.

Another mistake is to permit repeaters to be published. These are the frustrated authors of the neighborhood; they are back two or three times a month with topical opinions, hoping to see their names in print. Nor would I use letters from public utilities companies, bar associations, medical societies, unions, teachers and other groups which can afford to state their views in a paid ad.

An editor asked me to take over a readers column. I was 22. He said he wanted more letters from readers. The paper had a circulation of 850,000 and averaged a couple of dozen letters a day. The mailman said there was a serious question in his mind about what percentage of our readers could write their names.

I doubt that any 22-year-old is a competent editor. The letters were dull. Two had drawings of skulls and crossbones on the envelope with crude caricatures of the editor being hanged. So I wrote my own letters.

The fleet was anchored in New York. There were aircraft carriers and cruisers, gray submarines and bristling guns everywhere. Times Square was heavy with boys in white uniforms. So I wrote my first letter: "Dear Editor: Now that the Navy is in town, I keep my two teen-age daughters under lock and key. I would kill them rather than permit either of them to go out with a sailor. An Agonized Mother."

Three days later the mail began to come in big gray sacks. My boss asked what the hell happened. (He didn't read the letters column.) "Mail," I said. "Mad, mad mail." I asked for three additional clerks to help me read the response.

He said no. Five months later we were getting protests from the Pacific Fleet. I tried to think of another rouser. It was dirty pool, but the boss wanted mail.

"Dear Editor: Those stories about the Pope harboring fugitive Jews in the Vatican constitute Catholic propaganda. Herr Goebbels reads U.S. newspapers. If it were true he would send the Wehrmacht into St. Peters and hang the College of Cardinals. You publish bunk. GOD-FEARING AMERICAN."

That one aroused Catholics and Jews to a fury. I published enough rebuttals to keep the readers from forming a posse and burning the newspaper building. The hate mail formed a barricade around my desk.

The true purpose of this chicanery was to be reassigned to something with dignity, like night court where the wife and sodden drunks and pimps squirmed onstage before Judge Hyman Bushel.

I wrote one more letter, praising the editor for his delicate and judicious handling of a recent juicy sex murder. This brought in the "good" mail — letters from ministers, rabbis, priests and lawyers, all of whom felt that the editor should be tarred, feathered and dragged over cactus plants by wild horses.

This was some time ago. However, I was hooked on the letters column. I never miss reading it. Today I get misty-eyed when a good subject comes to the readers' attention. Like Bert Lance, the loan expert. And those hundreds of letters canonizing and condemning Anita Bryant.

We need more controversy.

PITTSBURGH (AP) — If domestic steelmakers practiced the same below-cost pricing used by foreign exporters to the American market "it wouldn't take 60 days to throw them in jail," said Edgar B. Speer, U.S. Steel Corp. chairman.

The Clayton Act (of 1914) outlawed the pricing of goods below cost in order to drive competition out of business, and the Trade Act of 1974 restated it, said Speer, reading the latter act's statement of purposes.

Paragraph 4 of the statement declares as one of the aims "to provide adequate procedures to safeguard American industry and labor against unfair or injurious import competition." Section 301 authorizes the President to impose quotas.

But, he said, when foreign producers sell at below production costs "we think it's lovely" instead of enforcing promptly the legislation on the books. The 20 million tons of imported steel, he indicated, is the equivalent of 100,000 domestic jobs.

Eager to point out the implications of steel's difficulties for the local and national economies, the chairman contrasted the $30-a-ton discount obtained by the American buyer of foreign steel with what he said were much higher costs in unemployment compensation and lost domestic production.

In a blunt interview Oct. 12, the day before he and other steel company executives met at the White House, Speer expressed resentment over what he felt was a failure of Washington to respond to the industry's difficulties.

Since 1974, he said, steel producers have tried without success to win the ear of federal officials about imports. "Now we're invited down in 1977." He paused. "Invited," he said again, drawing out the pronunciation. "In 1977 ... big deal."

Speer said the industry finally won attention to its problems — imports, environmental regulations, capital shortage — only when they became social problems, with plants closing and "60,000 people hitting the bricks."

He was said to be more optimistic after the meeting with President Jimmy Carter, encouraged by the likelihood of limits on "dumped" imports as well as possible relief from strict enforcement of environmental regulations.

Commenting on a wide range of steel-related subjects, Speer referred to what he claimed was the illogical administration of environmental regulations and interference by government in pricing.

"We're in 100 per cent agreement with the objectives" of the environmental effort, he said, but he questioned the "uneconomic" applications of the regulations.

It is unrealistic to expect companies to spend millions of dollars refitting plants that soon will be phased out, he said, advocating instead that newly built plants only be held to "standards that meet the best known technology."

Chairman also of the American Iron and Steel Institute, and thus a chief industry spokesman, Speer said some of the industry's problems were compounded by Washington's attitude toward pricing. In effect, steel is a regulated industry, he said.

"It is not formally regulated, but informally it is just as tightly regulated as other basic industries," he said, naming among them natural gas, oil and transportation.

In shirtsleeves, speaking tartly, Speer observed that "every industry the government puts under control is in trouble." Leaning forward, he snapped that the government couldn't operate a house of ill repute at a profit.

Too often, he suggested, the industry's complaints that it and its workers are being hurt by subsidized imports have drawn the reaction that the problems arise from the cyclical nature of the industry or from mismanagement.

Acknowledging that some of the problems clearly arise from the ups and downs of the business cycle of which it is so basic a part, Speer said it is nevertheless "very convenient to blame management" for all problems.

If imports were not subsidized, he was asked, could domestic steel compete? "Absolutely could," he replied. He indicated that Japanese exporters were exploiting rather than reacting to marketplace demands.

"Hello, Houston! ... Hello, Houston! ... Second stage separated successfully, but ... we're in it!"

Speaking Of Your Health

by Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

Even if I don't go to the gym or swim in a pool I keep getting fungus infections of the feet. I've had this all my life. Now, my 8-year-old son joins me in athletics. I want to know how I can prevent his having the same miseries.

Mr. N.P., Mass.

Dear Mr. P.: It must not be assumed that every break in the skin, blistering or cracks are due to fungus infections.

Many people assume the discomfort of superficial infections of the feet are due to a fungus infection. Without consulting a doctor, they then embark on a regime of self-medication and over-the-counter drugs that may actually intensify the problem.

The first thing that you should do is to get professional help from a skin doctor or a podiatrist. See if a particular fungus is really responsible for your problem.

There are a number of other conditions which give similar symptoms and are not due to a fungus. For example, contact dermatitis may be due to soaps or an allergic reaction to wool or synthetics.

Excess sweating, poor hygiene or psoriasis are other causes.

Only after a proper diagnosis is made can intensive treatment start. There's no reason why you should suffer this way indefinitely. And certainly, your son need not acquire the same thing that you have had all your life.

He should be taught the fundamentals of good hygiene, in and out of the gymnasium. Daily baths, proper drying of the feet, clean socks, protective slippers in the gym or at a pool are essential.

There are many excellent drugs and powders that your doctor can recommend for the cure of this condition.

After brief testing, the doctor made a quick diagnosis of "carpal tunnel syndrome." How advisable is it to have the surgery he suggests? What percentage of help can an operation give?

Mrs. C.C.U., Pa.

Dear Mrs. U.: There is a tight compartment or "tunnel" in the hand. Through this, nerves, ligaments and tendons pass. Sometimes, the "major median" nerve becomes compressed in this tunnel. The result may be numbness of the fingers, swelling of the fingers, swelling of the hand and weakness of the muscles.

The operation is simple, and safe, and very gratifying. Dramatic results follow this procedure.

The fact that it was a "quick" diagnosis is a testimonial to your doctor's ability.

Carter's Tax Revisions Too Much, Ullman Says

WASHINGTON (AP) — A key congressman is telling President Carter his contemplated tax revisions try to do too much at once.

Without eliminating some of the controversial proposals, says Rep. Al Ullman, D-Ore., the plan would stand little chance this year in Congress.

Ullman, whose House Ways and Means Committee must work on Carter's tax plan when it is formally presented, says Congress cannot digest all the major reforms Carter wants in one year.

Ullman wants Carter to drop his request to end tax breaks on capital gains. Ullman also wants to keep alive the full business lunch tax deduction, which the Treasury Department wants to halve.

Ullman wants Carter's bill simply to restructure tax rates, make tax forms easier to fill out and encourage long-term business investments. He also supports ending double taxation on dividends.

"If we get bogged down in loopholes, we won't get a tax bill," Ullman told businessmen last weekend.

The administration Monday stuck to its position that the entire program should be acted on at once because some parts are dependent on others.

The package Carter is considering would reduce income taxes for nearly everyone making less than $100,000 a year while changing many tax deductions.

Ullman wants Carter to delay any request to end a variety of deductions, including those for sales, personal property and gasoline taxes.

Such a move has been suggested to the President by members of his administration.

Carter is also considering a proposal to limit medical and casualty deductions and remove tax exemptions for such fringe benefits as group term life insurance.

During his presidential campaign, Carter pledged to juggle tax rates to make them more fair and end certain deductions and special preferences.

He would tax capital gains, a tax haven for many businessmen, as income and would eliminate the practice of taxing corporate dividends.

Carter also is considering raising the income at which taxes are first due for a family of four, from $7,600 to $9,500. In one recent draft made public, the Treasury Department suggests that the tax liability for such a family with an annual income of $15,000 to $20,000 be reduced by about $300 to $1,360 a year.

Even with the fast congressional action, Carter's tax plan would not take effect until 1979, although Carter indicated last week he might ask Congress to begin the tax cuts next year to stimulate spending.

Flue Caution

Considering the way last winter's swine flu inoculation program turned out, it is small wonder that so little has been said publicly about flu inoculations of any type this year. That doesn't mean that people who fall into high risk categories shouldn't look into the possibilities of vaccine protection.

Family physicians are the ones to contact with questions about individual protection. There will be no national swine flu inoculation program this year, at least not unless that variant of the disease threatens a new epidemic.

While many health experts are predicting cautiously that this winter will be a mild flu season, with scattered cases of milder strains the only threat, they are hedging their predictions with the observation that flu forecasting "is still an inexact science."

Indeed it is. Because the possibility of future flu epidemics is unpredictable, the elderly and others who are particularly susceptible to flu complications should be checking now with their doctors. If inoculations are recommended, it is time to begin now.

The package Carter is considering would reduce income taxes for nearly everyone making less than $100,000 a year while changing many tax deductions.

Ullman wants Carter to delay any request to end a variety of deductions, including those for sales, personal property and gasoline taxes.

Such a move has been suggested to the President by members of his administration.

Carter is also considering a proposal to limit medical and casualty deductions and remove tax exemptions for such fringe benefits as group term life insurance.

During his presidential campaign, Carter pledged to juggle tax rates to make them more fair and end certain deductions and special preferences.

He would tax capital gains, a tax haven for many businessmen, as income and would eliminate the practice of taxing corporate dividends.

Carter also is considering raising the income at which taxes are first due for a family of four, from $7,600 to $9,500. In one recent draft made public, the Treasury Department suggests that the tax liability for such a family with an annual income of $15,000 to $20,000 be reduced by about $300 to $1,360 a year.

Even with the fast congressional action, Carter's tax plan would not take effect until 1979, although Carter indicated last week he might ask Congress to begin the tax cuts next year to stimulate spending.

Monkey Business In Memphis

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Officials at the Memphis Zoological Gardens aren't taking any more monkey business from Big George and his troublesome gang.

George, a male rhesus monkey, and eight female accomplices are being replaced on Monkey Island by 10 monkeys with calmer personalities.

Moreover, zoo director Charles Wilson says they'll be deported to a Canadian breeding colony.

The monkeys have escaped numerous times over the years, causing headaches for zoo employees, visitors and nearby human residents.

"They have threatened several zoo visitors while on their foraging expeditions off their island," Wilson said. "We have to remove the animals that are serious threats to public safety."

Powdered Booze Headed For Market

WASHINGTON (AP) — The ultimate in the dry martini may be headed for the American market — powdered booze.

The Treasury Department's Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms is studying powdered alcohol, developed by a Japanese firm and being considered for sale in pre-mixed cocktails.

The actual alcohol, still in liquid form, is in tiny particles suspended in a powder that looks like a gelatin desert mix.

And, in fact, the first sales of the product in Japan have been as a rose wine gelatin.

But cocktails in small cans or foil packets are being studied for the American market. Global Marketing of Seattle, said distribution in this country depends on how the Treasury Department decides to tax the product.

A Treasury Department spokesman, who said the product's safety will be checked, noted that officials were having some problems deciding how to apply tax laws written for liquid alcohol to a powder.

Mike Hill of Global Marketing said initial plans, if the government approves, call for cocktails that could be made by simply adding water to the product.

He noted that there are premixed cocktails on the market, as well as powdered mixes to which the drinker adds his own alcohol to make a cocktail, but said this powder would be less bulky and easier to use.

With the powdered product, for example, a customer could tear open an envelope, add water and have a whiskey sour, daiquiri, Bloody Mary or other cocktail, Hill said.

A government spokesman said the product could have a substantial effect on alcohol use, notably by campers and others carrying food into the wilds.

Save On Fuel Bills With Scioto Valley Insulation

Reduce your fuel bills by using Scioto Valley Insulation's Aerolite foam insulation.

Aerolite Foam, produced by CIBA-GEIGY and distributed by American SPE Corp., retards seepage of air to the inside of the home through cracks, crevices and other small openings, and reduces the transfer or conduction of heat from one side of a wall to the other.

The Aerolite Urea Formaldehyde Foam has a greater insulating value than blown wool, glass fiber and granular fill.

According to Dick Cupp, who co-owns and operates the business with Ron Agin, Aerolite will effectively insulate new and older homes, and is practical for all types of instruction.

Another advantage is its availability. Cupp says Aerolite Foam can be obtained quickly while there is a shortage of fiberglass and cellulose.

Agin, Cupp and their employees have used Aerolite Foam in new construction, older homes and mobile homes.

They can install the foam where there is fiberglass batting present. The fiberglass batting doesn't hinder installation of the foam but is added to sandwich the batting between the walls.

The foam is applied through special applicators and has the consistency of shaving cream. It is injected into cavities between interior and exterior walls through openings as small as 3/4 inch in diameter. The foam cures and acquires a resilience which is spongy two-to four weeks after application.

The foam, made of urea formaldehyde, is non-toxic and will not burn. The foam does not expand after it is in the wall and shrinkage is minimal, from one to three percent.

Other features are that it can serve as an acoustical insulator, temperature, fire and mold resistant, chemically stable, maintenance free and will remain effective as an insulant for the life of the building, Cupp said.

SPE Corp. is now devising a way to take foam after it is cured, shred it, and use it in attic insulation instead of cellulose. Scioto Valley Insulation men intend to begin using it as soon as it is available. This foam will have a more efficient insulating value than the present foam.

For free estimates call Ron Agin or Dick Cupp at 477-1334. In addition, be sure to stop in at Scioto Valley Insulation's special booth at the Exxon Station on Main Street while attending the Pumpkin Show. The booth will be easy to spot as Cupp and Agin have constructed an igloo booth. While TESTING — Ron Agin watches Dick Cupp test the weight of a bucket of Aerolite foam. The owners of Scioto Valley Insulation run tests on each job to make sure the correct amount and consistency of foam is applied per cubic foot of space to insure maximum insulation effectiveness.

visiting, ask Ron or Dick how you, too, can have Aerolite foam insulation added to your home and register for the drawing to be held for 1,000 square feet of free insulation.

Jail Worsens Rather Than Solves Problems Of Women Offenders

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — Being sentenced to jail often worsens rather than solves the problems of a woman offender, and a new Lucas County program is helping females deal with their duties left outside cell walls.

She may leave children with no other parent to care for them, have no way to make bond or lose her home while in jail.

The Lucas County program, Women Offenders Services Bureau, was established this summer and, according to Mary E. Smith, director of the service, it could be the only program of its kind in the United States.

Funded by a grant from the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration, the service employs three women who meet with any female prisoner in the Lucas County Corrections Center who wants assistance.

"During the first day or two, the services we provide are mostly crisis-oriented," Ms. Smith, who prefers that designation, said.

For example, if the woman had been receiving Aid to Dependent Children payments, the bureau will see that whoever has taken over care of the children continues to receive the aid.

If there is no family to care for the children, the bureau will find out where they have been placed so the mother can remain in contact with them.

Ms. Smith said the typical woman offender that her bureau meets is under 30 without a male partner. Most have one or two small children, are high school dropouts and have no real work record. About half have a juvenile record. Many are minority women.

"Most of these women are charged with misdemeanors. Most have committed nonviolent acts. Their behavior patterns are not the same as female offenders in state and federal institutions," Ms. Smith said.

The capacity of the women's jail is 34 and it is usually full, Ms. Smith said. Some of the women are released quickly, and others within a few weeks.

Those sentenced to the jail stay an average of three to five months. The maximum stay is one year and a day.

"It can be a little confusing, and it means that we have to work fast," Ms. Smith said.

Some of the women need practical help, such as transferring welfare checks or setting up appointments for job interviews upon their release. Others need the emotional support of a good listener, Ms. Smith said.

The bureau holds programs within the jail throughout the week to help women prepare for release. Sessions are conducted by Planned Parenthood, Alcoholics Anonymous and other local service agencies.

BALLOT LANGUAGE, ARGUMENTS, AND FULL TEXT OF AMENDMENTS TO THE OHIO CONSTITUTION PROPOSED BY INITIATIVE PETITION TO BE SUBMITTED TO THE VOTERS AT THE GENERAL ELECTION NOVEMBER 8, 1977

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE OHIO CONSTITUTION

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

To amend Section 1 of Article V of the Constitution of Ohio

TO PROVIDE THAT A PERSON IS ENTITLED TO VOTE AT ALL ELECTIONS IF HE HAS BEEN REGISTERED TO VOTE FOR THIRTY DAYS AND HAS THE OTHER QUALIFICATIONS OF AN ELECTOR, AND TO PROVIDE THAT A PERSON WHO IS REGISTERED AND FAILS TO VOTE IN AT LEAST ONE ELECTION DURING ANY PERIOD OF FOUR CONSECUTIVE YEARS MUST REGISTER AGAIN BEFORE BEING ENTITLED TO VOTE.

(Proposed by Initiative Petition)

A majority affirmative vote is necessary for passage.

TEXT OF PROPOSED AMENDMENT

(The proposed new language is capitalized and underlined)

ARTICLE V

SECTION 1. Every citizen of the United States, of the age of eighteen years, who has been a resident of the state, county, township, or ward, such time as may be provided by law, AND HAS BEEN REGISTERED TO VOTE FOR THIRTY DAYS, has the qualifications of an elector, and is entitled to vote at all elections. ANY ELECTOR WHO FAILS TO VOTE IN AT LEAST ONE ELECTION DURING ANY PERIOD OF FOUR CONSECUTIVE YEARS SHALL CEASE TO BE AN ELECTOR UNLESS HE AGAIN REGISTERS TO VOTE.

YES

SHALL THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT BE ADOPTED?

ARGUMENT FOR THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT

VOTE YES ON HONEST ELECTIONS
VOTE YES ON ISSUE 1

SAFEGUARD YOUR VOTE. VOTE YES ON ISSUE 1.

Issue 1 restores the 30-day residency safeguard to voter registration and requires anyone who has not voted in four years to re-register. This prevents someone from voting falsely in an area where they do not reside or from wrongfully attempting to use the name or registration of someone who has moved away or died.

See that your vote is not stolen or cancelled by a tombstone.
Vote YES on Issue 1.

PROTECT YOUR CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHT TO VOTE.
VOTE YES ON ISSUE 1.

You have the constitutionally guaranteed right to be counted on every vote you cast. Issue 1 protects that right by insisting on safeguards against multiple or fraudulent voting. Without it, the U.S. Justice Department has warned; there is almost no way to trace the wide open vote fraud that could occur. Instant registration can mean instant fraud. Vote yes for integrity in government. Vote YES on Issue 1.

ISSUE 1 SAVES THE TAXPAYER'S MONEY. VOTE YES ON ISSUE 1.

Issue 1 will prevent the squandering of over $2.3 million of taxpayer's money. These funds will be automatically spent if Issue 1 is not passed and the current law is allowed to stand.

ISSUE 1 CAN PREVENT THE BOSSES AND MACHINES FROM TAKING OVER. VOTE YES ON ISSUE 1.

Issue 1 keeps elections in the hands of the people and out of the pockets of the big machine bosses, by protecting the integrity of the individual vote. It guarantees every Ohioan a voice in government by denying the bosses the opportunity for easy and undetected mass vote fraud. Vote for your right to vote. Vote YES on Issue 1.

ELECTION DAY REGISTRATION MEANS ELECTION FRAUD. VOTE YES ON ISSUE 1.

Committee for the Amendment: Jean M. Barren, William A. Miller, Jr., W.C. Channell, and William H. Schneider.

ARGUMENT AGAINST THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT

Ohioans deserve elections systems that make it easy to register and vote. Ohio's new election law does that through Election Day and permanent registration.

In 22 Ohio counties, residents have always had the right to vote on Election Day without registering in advance. Now all eligible Ohioans may register on Election Day.

Issue 1 would prohibit Election Day registration for all of us. It continues restrictions that shut out potential voters. Over two million eligible Ohioans are not registered. Last fall only 56 per cent voted.

YOU SHOULD KNOW:

1. Separate lines for registration and voting makes Election Day registration convenient for voters.

2. States that have it report turnouts of between 65 per cent and 76 per cent.

3. Even the FBI couldn't find any fraud in the five states with Election Day registration, and the people of Ohio are every bit as honest as they are.

4. Ohio's new Election Law strengthens the protection against fraud by requiring registrants to show identification and providing for five year prison terms for anyone voting twice.

5. It requires automatic purging from registration lists when people move or die.

6. Election Day registration is the cheapest way to register voters.

ISSUE 1

...denies Ohioans the right to use Election Day registration even though it works in other states.

...makes it more difficult for political independents to have a voice in government.

...freezes the ban on Election Day registration into our Constitution before we have a chance to see how it works.

Election Day registration works without fraud. Even Cuyahoga County's GOP Chairman admits the claims of fraud are "pure baloney". What really worries them is not fraud — it's more voters.

VOTE NO ON ISSUE 1

Committee against the Amendment: Don Maddux, J. Leonard Camera, C. J. McLin, Tony P. Hall, Robert E. O'Shaughnessy, and John K. Mahoney.

TEXT OF PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

(The proposed new language is that set forth in capital letters and underlined.)

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF OHIO THAT ARTICLE V, SECTION 1 OF THE OHIO CONSTITUTION BE AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

Every citizen of the United States of the age of eighteen years, who has been a resident of the state, county, township, or ward, such time as may be provided by law, AND HAS BEEN REGISTERED TO VOTE FOR THIRTY DAYS, has the qualifications of an elector, and is entitled to vote at all elections. ANY ELECTOR WHO FAILS TO VOTE IN AT LEAST ONE ELECTION DURING ANY PERIOD OF FOUR CONSECUTIVE YEARS SHALL CEASE TO BE AN ELECTOR UNLESS HE AGAIN REGISTERS TO VOTE.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

To adopt new Article XIX of the Constitution of Ohio

1. TO PROHIBIT ANY PERSON FROM USING IN THIS STATE LEHOLD TRAPS IN THE TRAPPING OF WILD BIRDS OR WILD FOUR-LEGGED ANIMALS (QUADRUPEDS) AND ALSO TO PROHIBIT ANY PERSON FROM USING ANY TRAPPING DEVICE IN A MANNER WHICH WILL CAUSE CONTINUED, PROLONGED SUFFERING TO SUCH BIRDS OR ANIMALS:

2. TO PROVIDE THAT EACH SEPARATE VIOLATION OF THIS AMENDMENT IS A CRIME: AND

3. TO PROVIDE THAT ANY PERSON MAY BRING A CIVIL ACTION FOR AN INJUNCTION TO STOP A VIOLATION AND TO RECOVER COSTS AND ATTORNEYS FEES.

(Proposed by Initiative Petition)

A majority affirmative vote is necessary for passage.

SHALL THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT BE ADOPTED?

ARGUMENT FOR THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT

Passage of Issue 2 will prevent needless and extreme pain and suffering for untold numbers of animals. The effect of Issue 2 is similar to the long accepted and humane practice of putting a horse out of its misery rather than permitting it to suffer after it breaks a leg.

Issue 2 in no way bans trapping as either a sport or profession in Ohio. It does eliminate the use of the leghold trap, a device which severely injures its victim and then continues to hold the creature in a continuing, and often long, period of extreme pain.

Several types of quick kill traps are available which do not inflict such suffering. These traps would still be legal and available to all persons wishing to engage in trapping.

Persons who wish to trap for pest or disease control or for wildlife management purposes may also continue to do so, providing that any of the many quick kill traps available are used.

Issue 2 also prohibits the use of any trapping device if it is used in a manner which will cause continued, prolonged suffering. This prohibition will not affect the proper use of any of the quick kill traps.

Simply put, passage of Issue 2 will end suffering for animals whose pelts are a valuable natural resource. And, as more humane traps are used, fewer non-valuable animals and pets will be accidentally trapped in Ohio. However, while protecting Ohio animals, humane trapping will still be permitted as a sport or profession in this state. Committee for the Amendment: Robert E. Cape, Michael J. Donohue, Anthony A. Kleinschmidt, Bruce Rouch, and Sandra E. Rowland.

ARGUMENT AGAINST THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT

Opponents of Issue 2, the anti-trapping amendment, urge Ohioans to vote "NO" for three primary reasons:

1. The amendment would ban all trapping activities, not just the leghold trap.

2. Trapping, including the use of the leghold trap, is necessary for proper wildlife management and conservation.

3. The subject — allowable devices for catching wild animals — should not be included in the Constitution of the State of Ohio.

The proposal as written, seeks to outlaw the use of "any trapping device," which may even include mouse traps and rat traps, cages and nets. No distinction is made among devices. Any method that traps an animal or bird can be said to produce suffering. Scientists trap certain wild animals for rabies research and birds for encephalitis tests. Opponents of Issue 2 believe this important work on disease control would be curtailed by passage of the amendment.

Good wildlife management requires that wild animal populations be controlled at levels consistent with the space and food available to sustain them. An absence of trapping to aide population control will result, first in burgeoning populations of, for example, fast-breeding muskrats and raccoons; followed by destruction of the species through starvation and disease. The trapping of wild animals in Ohio is regulated by the Division of Wildlife to protect domestic pets from the ravages of contagious diseases and to limit the taking of wild animals to surplus animal population and pests. Trapping for pest control must also be carried on by farmers to protect their crops from rodents.

The Constitution of this state is the basic document which establishes our form of government and delineates the rights of our citizens. It should not be cluttered with issues, which, if to be legislated at all, should be enacted into law by the Ohio General Assembly.

Jail Worsens Rather Than Solves Problems Of Women Offenders

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — Being sentenced to jail often worsens rather than solves the problems of a woman offender, and a new Lucas County program is helping females deal with their duties left outside cell walls.

She may leave children with no other parent to care for them, have no way to make bond or lose her home while in jail.

The Lucas County program, Women Offenders Services Bureau, was established this summer and, according to Mary E. Smith, director of the service, it could be the only program of its kind in the United States.

Funded by a grant from the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration, the service employs three women who meet with any female prisoner in the Lucas County Corrections Center who wants assistance.

"During the first day or two, the services we provide are mostly crisis-oriented," Ms. Smith, who prefers that designation, said.

For example, if the woman had been receiving Aid to Dependent Children payments, the bureau will see that whoever has taken over care of the children continues to receive the aid.

If there is no family to care for the children, the bureau will find out where they have been placed so the mother can remain in contact with them.

Ms. Smith said the typical woman offender that her bureau meets is under 30 without a male partner. Most have one or two small children, are high school dropouts and have no real work record. About half have a juvenile record. Many are minority women.

"Most of these women are charged with misdemeanors. Most have committed nonviolent acts. Their behavior patterns are not the same as female offenders in state and federal institutions," Ms. Smith said.

The capacity of the women's jail is 34 and it is usually full, Ms. Smith said. Some of the women are released quickly, and others within a few weeks.

Those sentenced to the jail stay an average of three to five months. The maximum stay is one year and a day.

"It can be a little confusing, and it means that we have to work fast," Ms. Smith said.

Some of the women need practical help, such as transferring welfare

checks or setting up appointments for job interviews upon their release. Others need the emotional support of a good listener, Ms. Smith said.

The bureau holds programs within the jail throughout the week to help women prepare for release. Sessions are conducted by Planned Parenthood, Alcoholics Anonymous and other local service agencies.

BALLOT LANGUAGE, ARGUMENTS, AND FULL TEXT OF AMENDMENTS TO THE OHIO CONSTITUTION PROPOSED BY INITIATIVE PETITION TO BE SUBMITTED TO THE VOTERS AT THE GENERAL ELECTION NOVEMBER 8, 1977

To amend Section 1 of Article V of the Constitution of Ohio

TO PROVIDE THAT A PERSON IS ENTITLED TO VOTE AT ALL ELECTIONS IF HE HAS BEEN REGISTERED TO VOTE FOR THIRTY DAYS AND HAS THE OTHER QUALIFICATIONS OF AN ELECTOR, AND TO PROVIDE THAT A PERSON WHO IS REGISTERED AND FAILS TO VOTE IN AT LEAST ONE ELECTION DURING ANY PERIOD OF FOUR CONSECUTIVE YEARS MUST REGISTER AGAIN BEFORE BEING ENTITLED TO VOTE.

(Proposed by Initiative Petition)

A majority affirmative vote is necessary for passage.

TEXT OF PROPOSED AMENDMENT

(The proposed new language is capitalized and underlined)

ARTICLE V

SECTION 1. Every citizen of the United States, of the age of eighteen years, who has been a resident of the state, county, township, or ward, such time as may be provided by law, AND HAS BEEN REGISTERED TO VOTE FOR THIRTY DAYS, has the qualifications of an elector, and is entitled to vote at all elections. ANY ELECTOR WHO FAILS TO VOTE IN AT LEAST ONE ELECTION DURING ANY PERIOD OF FOUR CONSECUTIVE YEARS SHALL CEASE TO BE AN ELECTOR UNLESS HE AGAIN REGISTERS TO VOTE.

NO

SHALL THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT BE ADOPTED?

SAFEGUARD YOUR VOTE. VOTE YES ON ISSUE 1.

Issue 1 restores the 30-day residency safeguard to voter registration and requires anyone who has not voted in four years to re-register. This prevents someone from voting falsely in an area where they do not reside or from wrongfully attempting to use the name or registration of someone who has moved away or died.

See that your vote is not stolen or cancelled by a tombstone.

Vote YES on Issue 1.

PROTECT YOUR CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHT TO VOTE.
VOTE YES ON ISSUE 1.

You have the constitutionally guaranteed right to be counted on every vote you cast. Issue 1 protects that right by insisting on safeguards against multiple or fraudulent voting. Without it, the U.S. Justice Department has warned, there is almost no way to trace the wide open vote fraud that could occur. Instant registration can mean instant fraud. Vote yes

ARGUMENT AGAINST THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT

Ohioans deserve elections systems that make it easy to register and vote. Ohio's new election law does that through Election Day and permanent registration.

In 22 Ohio counties, residents have always had the right to vote on Election Day without registering in advance. Now all eligible Ohioans may register on Election Day.

Issue 1 would prohibit Election Day registration for all of us. It continues restrictions that shut out potential voters. Over two million eligible Ohioans are not registered. Last fall only 56 per cent voted.

YOU SHOULD KNOW:

1. Separate lines for registration and voting makes Election Day registration convenient for voters.

2. States that have it report turnouts of between 65 per cent and 76 per cent.

3. Even the FBI couldn't find any fraud in the five states with Election Day registration, and the people of Ohio are every bit as honest as they are.

4. Ohio's new Election Law strengthens the protection against fraud by requiring registrants to show identification and providing for five year for integrity in government. Vote YES on Issue 1.

ISSUE 1 SAVES THE TAXPAYER'S MONEY. VOTE YES ON ISSUE 1.

Issue 1 will prevent the squandering of over $2.3 million of taxpayer's money. These funds will be automatically spent if Issue 1 is not passed and the current law is allowed to stand.

ISSUE 1 CAN PREVENT THE BOSSES AND MACHINES FROM TAKING OVER. VOTE YES ON ISSUE 1.

Issue 1 keeps elections in the hands of the people and out of the pockets of the big machine bosses, by protecting the integrity of the individual vote. It guarantees every Ohioan a voice in government by denying the bosses the opportunity for easy and undetected mass vote fraud. Vote for your right to vote. Vote YES on Issue 1.

ELECTION DAY REGISTRATION MEANS ELECTION FRAUD. VOTE YES ON ISSUE 1.

Committee for the Amendment: Jean M. Barren, William A. Miller, Jr., W.C. Channell, and William H. Schneider.

prison terms for anyone voting twice.

5. It requires automatic purging from registration lists when people move or die.

6. Election Day registration is the cheapest way to register voters.

ISSUE 1

...denies Ohioans the right to use Election Day registration even though it works in other states.

...makes it more difficult for political independents to have a voice in government.

...freezes the ban on Election Day registration into our Constitution before we have a chance to see how it works.

Election Day registration works without fraud. Even Cuyahoga County's GOP Chairman admits the claims of fraud are "pure baloney". What really worries them is not fraud — it's more voters.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

To adopt new Article XIX of the Constitution of Ohio

1. TO PROHIBIT ANY PERSON FROM USING IN THIS STATE LEHOLD TRAPS IN THE TRAPPING OF WILD BIRDS OR WILD FOUR-LEGGED ANIMALS (QUADRUPEDS) AND ALSO TO PROHIBIT ANY PERSON FROM USING ANY TRAPPING DEVICE IN A MANNER WHICH WILL CAUSE CONTINUED, PROLONGED SUFFERING TO SUCH BIRDS OR ANIMALS:

2. TO PROVIDE THAT EACH SEPARATE VIOLATION OF THIS AMENDMENT IS A CRIME: AND

3. TO PROVIDE THAT ANY PERSON MAY BRING A CIVIL ACTION FOR AN INJUNCTION TO STOP A VIOLATION AND TO RECOVER COSTS AND ATTORNEYS FEES.

(Proposed by Initiative Petition)

A majority affirmative vote is necessary for passage.

SHALL THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT BE ADOPTED?

ARGUMENT FOR THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT

Passage of Issue 2 will prevent needless and extreme pain and suffering for untold numbers of animals. The effect of Issue 2 is similar to the long accepted and humane practice of putting a horse out of its misery rather than permitting it to suffer after it breaks a leg.

Issue 2 in no way bans trapping as either a sport or profession in Ohio. It does eliminate the use of the leghold trap, a device which severely injures its victim and then continues to hold the creature in a continuing, and often long, period of extreme pain. Several types of quick kill traps are available which do not inflict such suffering. These traps would still be legal and available to all persons wishing to engage in trapping.

Persons who wish to trap for pest or disease control or for wildlife management purposes may also continue to do so, providing that any of the many quick kill traps available are used.

Issue 2 also prohibits the use of any trapping device it is used in a manner which will cause continued, prolonged suffering. This prohibition will not affect the proper use of any of the quick kill traps.

Simply put, passage of Issue 2 will end suffering for animals whose pelts are a valuable natural resource. And, as more humane traps are used, fewer non-valuable animals and pets will be accidentally trapped in Ohio. However, while protecting Ohio animals, humane trapping will still be permitted as a sport or profession in this state. Committee for the Amendment: Robert E. Cape, Michael J. Donohue, Anthony A. Kleinschmidt, Bruce Rouch, and Sandra E. Rowland.

ARGUMENT AGAINST THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT

Opponents of Issue 2, the anti-trapping amendment, urge Ohioans to vote "NO" for three primary reasons:

1. The amendment would ban all trapping activities, not just the leghold trap.

2. Trapping, including the use of the leghold trap, is necessary for proper wildlife management and conservation.

3. The subject — allowable devices for catching wild animals — should not be included in the Constitution of the State of Ohio.

The proposal as written, seeks to outlaw the use of "any trapping device," which may even include mouse traps and rat traps, cages and nets. No distinction is made among devices. Any method that traps an animal or bird can be said to produce suffering. Scientists trap certain wild animals for rabies research and birds for encephalitis tests. Opponents of Issue 2 believe this important work on disease control would be curtailed by passage of the amendment.

Good wildlife management requires that wild animal populations be controlled at levels consistent with the space and food available to sustain them. An absence of trapping to aide population control will result, first in burgeoning populations of, for example, fast-breeding muskrats and raccoons; followed by destruction of the species through starvation and disease. The trapping of wild animals in Ohio is regulated by the Division of Wildlife to protect domestic pets from the ravages of contagious diseases and to limit the taking of wild animals to surplus animal population and pests. Trapping for pest control must also be carried on by farmers to protect their crops from rodents.

The Constitution of this state is the basic document which establishes our form of government and delineates the rights of our citizens. It should not be cluttered with issues, which, if to be legislated at all, should be enacted into law by the Ohio General Assembly.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

To amend Article VIII of the Constitution of Ohio
by adopting Section 14

1. TO AUTHORIZE THE STATE TO LEND ITS AID AND CREDIT TO INDIVIDUALS, ASSOCIATIONS, COMPANIES, OR CORPORATIONS, TO BORROW MONEY, AND ISSUE BONDS OR NOTES TO PROVIDE FOR HOUSING AND THE REHABILITATION OF HOUSING, AND TO MAKE DIRECT LOANS FOR LOW AND MODERATE INCOME HOUSING.
2. TO AUTHORIZE MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS AND COUNTIES, IN THE ABSENCE OF LAWS PASSED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY TO THE CONTRARY, TO DO THE SAME AS PARAGRAPH 1 ABOVE.
3. TO VALIDATE AND RATIFY THE BOND AUTHORITY OF SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 870 OF THE 110TH GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

(Proposed by Resolution of the General Assembly of Ohio)
A majority affirmative vote is necessary for passage.

SHALL THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT
BE ADOPTED?

EXPLANATION OF ISSUE No. 3

The Constitution presently provides that the credit of the state cannot be given or loaned except in a limited manner. This amendment would create additional authority for state, municipal, and county governments to loan or give credit as follows:

1. By authorizing the state to lend its aid and credit to individuals, associations, companies, or corporations, to borrow money, and issue bonds or notes to provide for housing and the rehabilitation of housing, and to make direct loans for low and moderate income housing.
2. By authorizing municipal corporations and counties, in the absence of laws passed by the General Assembly to the contrary, to do the same as paragraph 1 above.
3. By validating and ratifying the bond authority of Substitute House Bill No. 870 of the 110th General Assembly.

Moneys raised by taxation cannot be obligated or pledged for the payment of bonds or other obligations issued by the state or to secure the giving or loaning of the state's credit. However, the General Assembly could appropriate moneys into a reserve fund to be used to retire the bonds or to secure the state's obligations in this respect. Bonds which the state issues would have to be revenue bonds or supported by a special reserve fund to which the state had appropriated money since moneys raised by taxation cannot be obligated or pledged for the payment of such bonds or other obligations.

Municipal corporations and counties, in the absence of laws to the contrary, can borrow money, issue bonds or notes, and give and lend their credit to provide for housing and housing rehabilitation. These governmental entities can also make direct loans for low and moderate income housing to the extent that such loans do not contravene laws enacted by the General Assembly.

Under existing law municipal corporations and metropolitan housing authorities are authorized to construct and operate public housing facilities. A municipal corporation, under its inherent home rule powers, has authority to maintain public housing. Under the authority of the proposed amendment (new Section 14) the municipal corporation or any county would be authorized to borrow money and issue general obligation bonds or notes and give or lend its credit to individuals, corporations, or associations to provide for public housing or for the rehabilitation of housing. The borrowing of money or lending of aid or credit by a municipal corporation or county would not be subject to the limitations present in Sections 6 or 11 of Article XVIII of the Constitution. However, they would be subject to the limitations upon indebtedness which are otherwise provided by law and specifically to the current debt limitations on municipal corporations and counties found in Chapter 133 of the Ohio Revised Code.

The proposed amendment provides that the lending of aid or credit is not subject to the limitations of other sections of Article VIII or of Sections 6 and 11 of Article XII of the Ohio Constitution.

Amended Substitute House Bill No. 870 enacted in 1974 by the 110th General Assembly is validated by the amendment. That bill authorized the Ohio Housing Development Authority to sell tax-free bonds and notes to provide financial aid to private persons and associations for the rehabilitation and construction of housing for low and moderate income persons. The Supreme Court held in 1976 that the issuance of revenue bonds by the Ohio Housing Development Authority was not proper under the Constitution and that the enactment of Amended Substitute House Bill No. 870 did not qualify as a valid exercise of legislative power. Consequently, the adoption of new Section 14 would eliminate the Constitutional defects in Amended Substitute House Bill No. 870 and validate that 1974 enactment by the General Assembly.

ARGUMENTS FOR THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT

Ohio's citizens are entitled to live in decent housing. Yet, with skyrocketing interest rates, fewer working people can afford to buy their own homes or to rent safe, sound apartments. Fewer retired persons, and others on fixed incomes, can afford to maintain adequate housing.

Issue 3 will revitalize the housing industry in Ohio. It should provide many of the 100,000 units needed over the next few years by freeing up home construction money at reduced interest rates. More people will be able to afford their own homes.

It will help reduce blight, preserving neighborhoods before they can become slums.

It will encourage rehabilitation of existing housing, promoting more attractive neighborhoods and better use of energy.

It will enable Ohio to use its entire share of federal housing dollars.

It will complement housing programs provided through conventional loans, lowering interest rates for all.

And it will create jobs and put thousands of people to work.

HOW WILL IT WORK?

Tax-free bonds for housing could be sold at rates 2% to 4% lower than bonds offered at regular interest rates.

Over the course of a 30-year, $45,000 mortgage, a 4% reduction on interest amounts to $34,500 or a $96 savings each month.

The projects would be self-supporting, coming from the sale of or rent from the housing. Thirty-nine states already run such programs.

The Air Quality and Water Development Authorities have operated similar programs in Ohio for years, at no cost to the taxpayer.

CONCLUSION

Housing problems are not limited to the poor. The average price of a new home is $48,000 and rising rapidly. This threatens to wreck, for young and old alike, the American Dream of owning a home.

OHIO NEEDS ISSUE 3!

Committee for the Amendment: Edward F. Feighan, Kenneth R. Cox, Mike Stinziano, Oakley C. Collins

ARGUMENTS AGAINST THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT

This Constitutional proposal would create a jumbo state agency with authority to sell unlimited millions of dollars of revenue bonds and then make direct loans to individuals even though experience in other states has been disastrous for some similar programs.

Dave Conway's Contract 'One In Million' Chance

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Nashville is jammed with persons using various methods to get into the country music business.

They trudge door-to-door along Music Row, seeking someone to listen to a song. They station themselves outside recording studios, waiting for a star who might help them out.

They also send letters and demonstration records and tapes. Hundreds arrive daily.

For Dave Conway of Royston, Ga., the mail-in maneuver worked. He signed a recording contract and made the national charts through what his producer, Howard Knight, calls "a one in a million" chance.

He owes it all to his wife, Mary Ann. She saw an ad in a trade magazine from Knight's record company. Posing as a fan of Conway's, she sent the company a copy of a record her husband had cut on a custom label several years ago.

"Dave has that atmosphere about him that makes you know he is pro material," she wrote the company.

Conway soon got a call from Knight and a few days later the two met in Royston. They had a midnight snack and before dawn Conway had a personal management and recording contract.

Within a week, he was flown to Nashville and recorded "If You're Gonna Love (You Gotta Hurt)," which made the 60s of the top 100 on the national charts.

"The business is so competitive, he's one in a million," Knight said.

The irony is that Conway himself had been sending letters and tapes to Nashville without success. And he had never seen the letter his wife sent.

"I got refusal letters from everybody in the country," said Conway, who recently gave up a record store he operated. "Over the years I guess I sent 300 to 400 letters. I used to send tapes in a big box just to be different and get attention. What's funny is that I'd been sending all these letters and then she scores with one."

"I was to the point where I'd put all I could into it. I also had been going to shows (in Georgia) and pitching songs. I'd always had a lot of compliments but that's as far as it went. I'd done everything."

"When Howard called, I didn't know what was going on. But I didn't have any money so I didn't take him too seriously. I kept saying, 'I don't have any money.' And he kept saying, 'I don't want your money.'"

"Finally, I pretty well evaluated him. Then I got excited."

Knight said the record he was sent showed Conway's "potential and talent, but he had no direction to go in because no one had taken the time to listen to him."

(Proposed by Resolution of the General Assembly of Ohio)

SHALL THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT BE ADOPTED?

EXPLANATION OF ISSUE No. 3

The Constitution presently provides that the credit of the state cannot be given or loaned except in a limited manner. This amendment would create additional authority for state, municipal, and county governments to loan or give credit as follows:

1. By authorizing the state to lend its aid and credit to individuals, associations, companies, or corporations, to borrow money, and issue bonds or notes to provide for housing and the rehabilitation of housing, and to make direct loans for low and moderate income housing.
2. By authorizing municipal corporations and counties, in the absence of laws passed by the General Assembly to the contrary, to do the same as paragraph 1 above.
3. By validating and ratifying the bond authority of Substitute House Bill No. 870 of the 110th General Assembly.

Moneys raised by taxation cannot be obligated or pledged for the payment of bonds or other obligations issued by the state or to secure the giving or loaning of the state's credit. However, the General Assembly could appropriate moneys into a reserve fund to be used to retire the bonds or to secure the state's obligations in this respect. Bonds which the state issues would have to be revenue bonds or supported by a special reserve fund to which the state had appropriated money since moneys raised by taxation cannot be obligated or pledged for the payment of such bonds or other obligations.

Municipal corporations and counties, in the absence of laws to the contrary, can borrow money, issue bonds or notes, and give and lend their credit to provide for housing and housing rehabilitation. These governmental entities can also make direct loans for low and moderate income housing to the extent that such loans do not contravene laws enacted by the General Assembly.

Under existing law municipal corporations and metropolitan housing authorities are authorized to construct and operate public housing facilities. A municipal corporation, under its inherent home rule powers, has authority to maintain public housing. Under the authority of the proposed amendment (new Section 14) the municipal corporation or any county would be authorized to borrow money and issue general obligation bonds or notes and give or lend its credit to individuals, corporations, or associations to provide for public housing or for the rehabilitation of housing. The borrowing of money or lending of aid or credit by a municipal corporation or county would not be subject to the limitations present in Sections 6 or 11 of Article XVIII of the Constitution. However, they would be subject to the limitations upon indebtedness which are otherwise provided by law and specifically to the current debt limitations on municipal corporations and counties found in Chapter 133 of the Ohio Revised Code.

The proposed amendment provides that the lending of aid or credit is not subject to the limitations of other sections of Article VIII or of Sections 6 and 11 of Article XII of the Ohio Constitution.

Amended Substitute House Bill No. 870 enacted in 1974 by the 110th General Assembly is validated by the amendment. That bill authorized the Ohio Housing Development Authority to sell tax-free bonds and notes to provide financial aid to private persons and associations for the rehabilitation and construction of housing for low and moderate income persons. The Supreme Court held in 1976 that the issuance of revenue bonds by the Ohio Housing Development Authority was not proper under the Constitution and that the enactment of Amended Substitute House Bill No. 870 did not qualify as a valid exercise of legislative power. Consequently, the adoption of new Section 14 would eliminate the Constitutional defects in Amended Substitute House Bill No. 870 and validate that 1974 enactment by the General Assembly.

ARGUMENTS FOR THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT

Ohio's citizens are entitled to live in decent housing. Yet, with skyrocketing interest rates, fewer working people can afford to buy their own homes or to rent safe, sound apartments. Fewer retired persons, and others on fixed incomes, can afford to maintain adequate housing.

Issue 3 will revitalize the housing industry in Ohio. It should provide many of the 100,000 units needed over the next few years by freeing up home construction money at reduced interest rates. More people will be able to afford their own homes.

It will help reduce blight, preserving neighborhoods before they can become slums.

It will encourage rehabilitation of existing housing, promoting more attractive neighborhoods and better use of energy.

It will enable Ohio to use its entire share of federal housing dollars.

It will complement housing programs provided through conventional loans, lowering interest rates for all.

And it will create jobs and put thousands of people to work.

HOW WILL IT WORK?

Tax-free bonds for housing could be sold at rates 2% to 4% lower than bonds offered at regular interest rates.

Over the course of a 30-year, $45,000 mortgage, a 4% reduction on interest amounts to $34,500 or a $96 savings each month.

The projects would be self-supporting, coming from the sale of or rent from the housing. Thirty-nine states already run such programs.

The Air Quality and Water Development Authorities have operated similar programs in Ohio for years, at no cost to the taxpayer.

CONCLUSION

Housing problems are not limited to the poor. The average price of a new home is $48,000 and rising rapidly. This threatens to wreck, for young and old alike, the American Dream of owning a home.

ARGUMENTS AGAINST THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT

This Constitutional proposal would create a jumbo state agency with authority to sell unlimited millions of dollars of revenue bonds and then make direct loans to individuals even though experience in other states has been disastrous for some similar programs.

BOYS CHOIR — The Circleville Boys' Choir, in its tenth year under the direction of founder Paul Dunkle, will sing at the West Main Street platform on Friday evening of the Pumpkin Show at 6 p.m. A program of both sacred and secular music will be presented. The choir performs for many churches and organizations in the area, and each year they present public concerts in the winter and the spring. The accompanist for the group is Randy Wolfe. Membership in the choir is open to any Pickaway County boy in grades four through seven.

Dave Conway's Contract 'One In Million' Chance

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Nashville is jammed with persons using various methods to get into the country music business.

They trudge door-to-door along Music Row, seeking someone to listen to a song. They station themselves outside recording studios, waiting for a star who might help them out.

They also send letters and demonstration records and tapes. Hundreds arrive daily.

For Dave Conway of Royston, Ga., the mail-in maneuver worked. He signed a recording contract and made the national charts through what his producer, Howard Knight, calls "a one in a million" chance.

He owes it all to his wife, Mary Ann. She saw an ad in a trade magazine from Knight's record company. Posing as a fan of Conway's, she sent the company a copy of a record her husband had cut on a custom label several years ago.

"Dave has that atmosphere about him that makes you know he is pro material," she wrote the company.

Conway soon got a call from Knight and a few days later the two met in Royston. They had a midnight snack and before dawn Conway had a personal management and recording contract.

Within a week, he was flown to Nashville and recorded "If You're Gonna Love (You Gotta Hurt)," which made the 60s of the top 100 on the national charts.

"The business is so competitive, he's one in a million," Knight said.

The irony is that Conway himself had been sending letters and tapes to Nashville without success. And he had never seen the letter his wife sent.

"I got refusal letters from everybody in the country," said Conway, who recently gave up a record store he operated. "Over the years I guess I sent 300 to 400 letters. I used to send tapes in a big box just to be different and get attention. What's funny is that I'd been sending all these letters and then she scores with one."

"I was to the point where I'd put all I could into it. I also had been going to shows (in Georgia) and pitching songs. I'd always had a lot of compliments but that's as far as it went. I'd done everything."

"When Howard called, I didn't know what was going on. But I didn't have any money so I didn't take him too seriously. I kept saying, 'I don't have any money.' And he kept saying, 'I don't want your money.'"

"Finally, I pretty well evaluated him. Then I got excited."

Knight said the record he was sent showed Conway's "potential and talent, but he had no direction to go in because no one had taken the time to listen to him."

Silver Bridge To Reopen

POINT PLEASANT, W.Va. (AP) — To the applause of businessmen, the damaged four-lane bridge linking this community with Kanawha, Ohio, will reopen today.

The Silver Memorial Bridge has been closed since July 6 because of cracked welds discovered by inspectors in the span's main beams. Besides inconveniencing commuters, the closing cut into commerce.

"The past 14 weeks have been anxious and depressing ones for this community, which endured the closing of this massive, barely 8-year old bridge with disbelief," said G.A. Biggs, president of the Point Pleasant-Mason County Chamber of Commerce.

A parttime Ohio River ferry service was operated by the state while the bridge was closed.

Gov. Jay Rockefeller will be on hand for the opening. The bridge initially will be operated with only two traffic lanes. Workmen will be repairing the other two lanes.

State Highway Commissioner Charles Miller said Tuesday his Department is contracting with Batelle Memorial Laboratories in Pennsylvania to conduct tests of the defects.

Miller met Tuesday with representatives of the Federal Highway Administration, and steel companies to discuss the types of tests that should be conducted.

The bridge replaced the Silver Bridge, which collapsed into the Ohio River in 1967, killing 46 persons.

(Proposed by Resolution of the General Assembly of Ohio)

SHALL THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT BE ADOPTED?

EXPLANATION OF ISSUE No. 4

Constitutional provisions currently in effect prohibit the state from borrowing more than $750,000. A number of exceptions to this limitation are now in the Constitution.

This proposed Constitutional amendment provides for revised limitations upon state indebtedness. The proposed amendment authorizes the General Assembly by two-thirds concurrence of each house to contract debt for capital improvements by the state or to provide funds to local governmental entities for such purposes, within the limitations that payments on the state's total outstanding debt shall not exceed 6% of the state's annual revenues and debt contracted in any fiscal year shall not exceed 8% of the total revenue that is subject to the General Assembly's appropriations.

The General Assembly is required to provide for the retirement of at least 4% of the state's outstanding indebtedness each year and provide the method, procedures, and appropriations for incurring, evidencing, refunding, and retiring of state debts.

The amendment provides additional authority for general obligation indebtedness for capital improvement or other purposes which may be contracted by a three-fifths majority concurrence of each house of the General Assembly if it is further approved by the voters. Indebtedness incurred in this manner would not be subject to limitations as to size or purpose or be included in the requirement to retire at least 4% of the principal debt each fiscal year.

The amendment provides that the state may contract debt during any fiscal year to meet appropriations of the General Assembly for such fiscal year, if such debt is repaid prior to the end of the fiscal year from state revenues other than borrowed funds.

If the General Assembly should fail to provide the required appropriations the Treasurer of State shall set aside moneys from the General Revenue Fund to provide for the full and timely payment of principal and interest on all state debts.

The Treasurer of State would be required to determine and certify the annual principal and interest payments on outstanding debts, the annual revenues that serve as the basis for determining the debt limitations, and any other financial data necessary for determining the limitations on borrowing authority or the amounts of principal to be retired. The Treasurer's determination would be conclusive for the purposes of this amendment.

The amendment would establish the minimum amounts which shall be appropriated for various purposes from the proceeds of bonds or notes authorized under the capital improvement provisions of this amendment as follows:

- (1) $80 million for state office buildings, including retirement of bonds and notes of the Ohio Building Authority;
- (2) $8 million for energy research or demonstration projects;
- (3) $200 million for transportation, at least one-half of which shall be for roads and bridges maintained by counties, townships, and municipalities;
- (4) $64 million for mental health and retardation facilities;
- (5) $80 million for correctional institutions;
- (6) $80 million for parks and recreation;
- (7) $35 million for water development;
- (8) $43 million for higher education;
- (9) $30 million for elementary and secondary education school building modernization or replacement;
- (10) $20 million for the multi-purpose senior citizens' center.

An amount not exceeding 15% of the total amounts enumerated above may be expended for any one of the above enumerated purposes or for any other purpose without all of the required appropriations for capital improvements having been made.

The amendment provides for the repeal of the following present Constitutional provisions:

Article VIII, Section 1—Imposing a $750,000 limitation upon state indebtedness.

Article VIII, Section 2—The authority for the state to borrow for the suppression of insurrection or to defend the state in wartime is transferred from Section 2 to Section 1, and Section 2 is repealed. The indebtedness incurred for these purposes is not made subject to the revenue-linked limitations or the 4% retirement limitation.

Other sections of Article VIII which provide for the World War II Compensation Fund, debt and bond-issuing authority for highway purposes, the Korean War bonus, state capital improvements, public works, and the issuance of development bonds are repealed. Sections of Article VIII which prohibit debt except as authorized by Sections 1 and 2 of Article VIII, require creation of a Sinking Fund for debt retirement, require a biennial report of the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund, and specify the duties of the Commissioners to repay debt are also repealed. Section 6 of Article XII, which prohibits the state from contracting for internal improvements except as otherwise provided in the Constitution, is repealed.

ARGUMENTS FOR THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT

This Constitutional Amendment would REPEAL THE $750,000 DEBT LIMIT ESTABLISHED IN 1851 and replace it with a flexible debt tied directly to the state's revenues.

The bi-partisan Ohio Constitutional Revision Commission recommended this Amendment, indicating that a "flexible debt limit," responsive to the state's ability to repay, is the best solution for modernizing the mechanism by which Ohio incurs debt for capital improvement purposes.

Recognizing the preference of the people of Ohio for Constitutional control in fiscal matters, this amendment contains the following restrictions:

1. Issuance of bonds WOULD REQUIRE A TWO-THIRDS VOTE OF BOTH HOUSES of the Legislature.
2. PRINCIPLE AND INTEREST OWED on bonds to be issued and on all outstanding bonds CANNOT IN ANY ONE YEAR EXCEED 6% of the average of the state's revenues for the preceding two years.
3. The DOLLAR AMOUNT OF BONDS ISSUED in any fiscal year CANNOT EXCEED 8% of the average of the state's revenues for the preceding two fiscal years.
4. AT LEAST 4% of the total debt MUST BE REPAID EVERY FISCAL YEAR.

The adoption of the amendment would:

1. PREVENT EXCESSIVE BORROWING, while allowing borrowing without undue delay;
2. EXPAND THE STATE'S ABILITY TO BORROW in times of rising revenues, and to reduce it in times of declining revenues;
3. PREVENT THE CLUTTERING UP OF THE CONSTITUTION with unnecessary financial detail;
4. REDUCE THE NUMBER AND EXPENSE OF STATEWIDE ELECTIONS on matters of debt;
5. UPON APPROVAL OF THE ELECTORATE, permit long-term borrowing outside the debt limit, or for purposes other than capital improvements, or in those emergency situations where such authority presently exists;
6. PROVIDE OHIO WITH A SAVINGS IN INTEREST COSTS by refinancing some of its revenue bonds with general obligation bonds;
7. INCREASE THE FISCAL FLEXIBILITY OF THE STATE by permitting it to borrow to meet appropriations, while requiring that all money borrowed for this purpose is repaid within the fiscal year in which it is borrowed.

Committee for the Amendment: Marcus Roberto, Anthony J. Celebrezze, Jr. and George Tablack

ARGUMENTS AGAINST THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT

Senate Joint Resolution #3 will set a dangerous precedent that could lead Ohio down a road laden with red ink and increased taxes.

The amendment would erase a fixed debt limit that has been part of our Constitution since 1851. It proposes to replace the current limit with a flexible debt that would be allowed to soar, with fluctuating limitations, as lawmakers respond to public pressure for more expensive services. Legislators mindful of public resistance to new taxes have been bound by the restrictive debt limit to the revenue they could raise in a biennial budget period. Senate Joint Resolution #3 eliminates this provision and instead turns legislators loose with our pocketbooks.

Not only will we have the issuance of more bonds for capital improvements around the state, but this proposed amendment allows unlimited short-term borrowing to pay state operating expenses within a fiscal year. Short-term borrowing against current deficits may be a convenient, but certainly a misguided way to forestall increased taxes or reductions in services.

The federal government is in a constant struggle to control an expanding national debt. It has grown to the point where interest payments on the $700 billion debt now account for the third largest expenditure of the federal government after national defense and human resources. The New York City debacle has shown us how fragile a credit rating is when the budget can't be balanced. Ohio is currently fiscally sound and must protect herself from falling into such a trap.

Proponents of the bill say percentage limits will be in effect and Ohio, through this law, will never fall irretrievably into debt. But existing law has an absolute limit that insures the state's fiscal integrity. Current law insures the public that legislators are not granted blank credit cards to incur debts.

ISSUE 4

(Amended Senate Joint Resolution No. 3)

JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing to enact new section 1 of Article VIII, and to repeal sections 1, 2, 2b, 2c, 2d, 2e, 2f, 2g, 2h, 3, 7, 9, and 10 of Article VIII and section 6 of Article XII of the Constitution of the State of Ohio, to replace the fixed state debt limit and authorizations with a flexible state debt limit for capital improvement purposes, to empower the General Assembly to create certain additional and limited debt to require the General Assembly to provide methods and procedures for incurring and retiring state debt, and to repeal obsolete and unnecessary sections.

Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio, three-fifths of the members elected to each house concurring therein, that there shall be submitted to the electors of the state in the manner prescribed by law at the general election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1977, a proposal to amend the Constitution of the State of Ohio by enacting new section 1 of Article VIII, and repealing sections 1, 2, 2b, 2c, 2d, 2e, 2f, 2g, 2h, 3, 7, 9, and 10 of Article VIII and section 6 of Article XII thereof, as follows:

ARTICLE VIII

Section 1. (A) The state may, by law passed by a two-thirds vote of two-thirds of the members elected to each house of the General Assembly, contract debt for capital improvements, including acquisition, land, and interests in the foregoing, and for grants, loans, or contributions to municipal corporations, counties, school districts, or other state or local governmental entities, agencies, or instrumentalities for such purposes, and for refunding debt contracted and other obligations incurred for such purposes. Debt for such purposes shall not be contracted if, in any fiscal year, the amount required for principal and interest payments on such debt and on all outstanding debt previously contracted, less any federal subsidies for any such principal or interest, would exceed six per cent of the average of the annual revenues of the state subject to appropriation by the General Assembly, excluding borrowed moneys, moneys received from the Federal Government, and moneys required to be returned by Section 9 of Article XII of this Constitution, received by the state during the then two preceding fiscal years. New debt for such purposes shall not be contracted in any fiscal year in a total principal amount exceeding eight per cent of such revenue average.

(B) The state may, by law, contract debt to repel invasion, suppress insurrection, or defend the State in war.

(C) The state may, by law, contract debt in addition to that, or for purposes other than those provided for in division (A) or (B) of this section, but only if the General Assembly, three-fifths of the members of each house concurring, submits the question of contracting such debt to the electors, and the question is approved by a majority of those voting on the question. The manner of submitting such questions shall be provided by law.

(D) The state may, by law, contract debt during any fiscal year to meet appropriations by the General Assembly made for such fiscal year, but such debt shall be paid not later than the end of such fiscal year and shall be paid from revenues of the state other than borrowed moneys.

(E) Debt contracted pursuant to division (B), (C), or (D) of this section shall not be included in the limits of, nor be subject to the requirements of, division (A) or (G) of this section. Section 11 of Article XII does not apply to debt contracted pursuant to this section.

(F) The General Assembly shall provide by law for the payment of the state debt and for the method and procedure for incurring, evidencing, refunding, and retiring state debt. The General Assembly shall appropriate sufficient moneys as will provide for the full and timely payment of the principal of and interest on the state debt. If the General Assembly does not, at any time, make such appropriations or if moneys to meet appropriations therefor are not provided, the Treasurer of State shall set aside from moneys held to the credit of the General Revenue Fund and from the first revenues of the state applicable to the General Revenue Fund and any other applicable funds, sufficient sums to provide for such full and timely payment and shall so apply the money set aside.

(G) At least four per cent of the total principal amount of debt outstanding at the beginning of a fiscal year shall be paid, or moneys for such payment set aside, during such fiscal year. For the purposes of division (A) of this section, the General Assembly shall provide for computing required principal and interest payments, and may provide for estimating principal and interest payments on bonds while notes in anticipation thereof are outstanding, for including principal and interest payments on debt contracted to refund or retire prior debt in lieu of such payments on such prior debt, and for the method of computing principal and interest payments on any debt required to be retired, or for which sinking fund deposits are required, prior to maturity. The Treasurer of State shall determine and certify the annual principal and interest payments on outstanding debt, the revenues of the state subject to appropriation by the General Assembly, and other financial data necessary for the purposes of division (A) of this section, and such certification shall be conclusive for purposes of the validity of any debt contracted pursuant to such division.

(H) For the purposes of this section, "debt" means general obligations of the state to repay moneys borrowed by the state for which repayment the faith, credit, and taxing power of the state are pledged.

EFFECTIVE DATE AND REPEAL
If adopted by a majority of the electors voting on this amendment, the amendment and schedule shall take immediate effect, and Sections 1, 2, 2b, 2c, 2d, 2e, 2f, 2g, 2h, 3, 7, 9, and 10 of Article VIII, and Section 6 of Article XII shall be repealed from such effective date.

Schedule

From proceeds of bonds or notes authorized pursuant to Division (A) of Section 1 of Article VIII not less than the following amounts shall be appropriated for capital improvements, capital acquisitions, land, and interests in the foregoing, for the following purposes:

- (1) $80 million for state office buildings, including retirement of bonds and notes of the Ohio Building Authority;
- (2) $8 million for energy research or demonstration projects;
- (3) $200 million for transportation, at least 1/2 of which shall be for roads and bridges maintained by counties, townships and municipalities;

BE ADOPTED?

EXPLANATION OF ISSUE No. 4

Constitutional provisions currently in effect prohibit the state from borrowing more than $750,000. A number of exceptions to this limitation are now in the Constitution.

This proposed Constitutional amendment provides for revised limitations upon state indebtedness. The proposed amendment authorizes the General Assembly by two-thirds concurrence of each house to contract debt for capital improvements by the state or to provide funds to local governmental entities for such purposes, within the limitations that payments on the state's total outstanding debt shall not exceed 6% of the state's annual revenues and debt contracted in any fiscal year shall not exceed 8% of the total revenue that is subject to the General Assembly's appropriations.

The General Assembly is required to provide for the retirement of at least 4% of the state's outstanding indebtedness each year and provide the method, procedures, and appropriations for incurring, evidencing, refunding, and retiring of state debts.

The amendment provides additional authority for general obligation indebtedness for capital improvement or other purposes which may be contracted by a three-fifths majority concurrence of each house of the General Assembly if it is further approved by the voters. Indebtedness incurred in this manner would not be subject to limitations as to size or purpose or be included in the requirement to retire at least 4% of the principal debt each fiscal year.

The amendment provides that the state may contract debt during any fiscal year to meet appropriations of the General Assembly for such fiscal year, if such debt is repaid prior to the end of the fiscal year from state revenues other than borrowed funds.

If the General Assembly should fail to provide the required appropriations the Treasurer of State shall set aside moneys from the General Revenue Fund to provide for the full and timely payment of principal and interest on all state debts.

The Treasurer of State would be required to determine and certify the annual principal and interest payments on outstanding debts, the annual revenues that serve as the basis for determining the debt limitations, and any other financial data necessary for determining the limitations on borrowing authority or the amounts of principal to be retired. The Treasurer's determination would be conclusive for the purposes of this amendment.

The amendment would establish the minimum amounts which shall be appropriated for various purposes from the proceeds of bonds or notes authorized under the capital improvement provisions of this amendment as follows:

- (1) $80 million for state office buildings, including retirement of bonds and notes of the Ohio Building Authority;
- (2) $8 million for energy research or demonstration projects;
- (3) $200 million for transportation, at least one-half of which shall be for roads and bridges maintained by counties, townships, and municipalities;
- (4) $64 million for mental health and retardation facilities;
- (5) $80 million for correctional institutions;
- (6) $80 million for parks and recreation;
- (7) $35 million for water development;
- (8) $43 million for higher education;
- (9) $30 million for elementary and secondary education school building modernization or replacement;
- (10) $20 million for the multi-purpose senior citizens' center.

An amount not exceeding 15% of the total amounts enumerated above may be expended for any one of the above enumerated purposes or for any other purpose without all of the required appropriations for capital improvements having been made.

The amendment provides for the repeal of the following present Constitutional provisions:

Article VIII, Section 1 — Imposing a $750,000 limitation upon state indebtedness.

Article VIII, Section 2 — The authority for the state to borrow for the suppression of insurrection or to defend the state in wartime is transferred from Section 2 to Section 1, and Section 2 is repealed. The indebtedness incurred for these purposes is not made subject to the revenue-linked limitations or the 4% retirement limitation.

Other sections of Article VIII which provide for the World War II Compensation Fund, debt and bond-issuing authority for highway purposes, the Korean War bonus, state capital improvements, public works, and the issuance of development bonds are repealed. Sections of Article VIII which prohibit debt except as authorized by Sections 1 and 2 of Article VIII, require creation of a Sinking Fund for debt retirement, require a biennial report of the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund, and specify the duties of the Commissioners to repay debt are also repealed. Section 6 of Article XII, which prohibits the state from contracting for internal improvements except as otherwise provided in the Constitution, is repealed.

ARGUMENTS FOR THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT

This Constitutional Amendment would REPEAL THE $750,000 DEBT LIMIT ESTABLISHED IN 1851 and replace it with a flexible debt tied directly to the state's revenues.

The bi-partisan Ohio Constitutional Revision Commission recommended this Amendment, indicating that a "flexible debt limit," responsive to the state's ability to repay, is the best solution for modernizing the mechanism by which Ohio incurs debt for capital improvement purposes.

Recognizing the preference of the people of Ohio for Constitutional control in fiscal matters, this amendment contains the following restrictions:

1. Issuance of bonds WOULD REQUIRE A TWO-THIRDS VOTE OF BOTH HOUSES of the Legislature.
 2. PRINCIPLE AND INTEREST OWED on bonds to be issued and on all outstanding bonds CANNOT IN ANY ONE YEAR EXCEED 6% of the average of the state's revenues for the preceding two years.
 3. The DOLLAR AMOUNT OF BONDS ISSUED in any fiscal year CANNOT EXCEED 8% of the average of the state's revenues for the preceding two fiscal years.
 4. AT LEAST 4% of the total debt MUST BE REPAYED EVERY FISCAL YEAR.
- The adoption of the amendment would:
1. PREVENT EXCESSIVE BORROWING, while allowing borrowing without undue delay;
 2. EXPAND THE STATE'S ABILITY TO BORROW in times of rising revenues, and to reduce it in times of declining revenues;
 3. PREVENT THE CLUTTERING UP OF THE CONSTITUTION with unnecessary financial detail;
 4. REDUCE THE NUMBER AND EXPENSE OF STATEWIDE ELECTIONS on matters of debt;
 5. UPON APPROVAL OF THE ELECTORATE, permit long-term borrowing outside the debt limit, or for purposes other than capital improvements, or in those emergency situations where such authority presently exists;
 6. PROVIDE OHIO WITH A SAVINGS IN INTEREST COSTS by refinancing some of its revenue bonds with general obligation bonds;
 7. INCREASE THE FISCAL FLEXIBILITY OF THE STATE by permitting it to borrow to meet appropriations, while requiring that all money borrowed for this purpose is repaid within the fiscal year in which it is borrowed.

ARGUMENTS AGAINST THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT

Senate Joint Resolution #3 will set a dangerous precedent that could lead Ohio down a road laden with red ink and increased taxes.

The amendment would erase a fixed debt limit that has been part of our Constitution since 1851. It proposes to replace the current limit with a flexible debt that would be allowed to soar, with fluctuating limitations, as lawmakers respond to public pressure for more expensive services. Legislators mindful of public resistance to new taxes have been bound by the restrictive debt limit to the revenue they could raise in a biennial budget period. Senate Joint Resolution #3 eliminates this provision and instead turns legislators loose with our pocketbooks.

Not only will we have the issuance of more bonds for capital improvements around the state, but this proposed amendment allows unlimited short-term borrowing to pay state operating expenses within a fiscal year. Short-term borrowing against current deficits may be a convenient, but certainly a misguided way to forestall increased taxes or reductions in services.

The federal government is in a constant struggle to control an expanding national debt. It has grown to the point where interest payments on the $700 billion debt now account for the third largest expenditure of the federal government after national defense and human resources. The New York City debacle has shown us how fragile a credit rating is when the budget can't be balanced. Ohio is currently fiscally sound and must protect herself from falling into such a trap.

Proponents of the bill say percentage limits will be in effect and Ohio, through this law, will never fall irretrievably into debt. But existing law has an absolute limit that insures the state's fiscal integrity. Current law insures the public that legislators are not granted blank credit cards to incur debts.

ISSUE 4

(Amended Senate Joint Resolution No. 3)

JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing to enact new section 1 of Article VIII, and to repeal sections 1, 2, 2b, 2c, 2d, 2e, 2f, 2g, 2h, 3, 7, 9, and 10 of Article VIII and section 6 of Article XII of the Constitution of the State of Ohio, to replace the fixed state debt limit and to authorize the General Assembly to create a sinking fund with a flexible state debt limit for capital improvement purposes, to empower the General Assembly to create a sinking fund and to require the General Assembly to provide methods and procedures for incurring and retiring state debt, and to repeal obsolete and unnecessary sections.

Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio, three-fifths of the members elected to each house concurring therein, that there shall be submitted to the electors of the state in the manner prescribed by law at the general election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1977, a proposal to amend the Constitution of the State of Ohio by enacting new section 1 of Article VIII, and repealing sections 1, 2, 2b, 2c, 2d, 2e, 2f, 2g, 2h, 3, 7, 9, and 10 of Article VIII and section 6 of Article XII thereof, as follows:

ARTICLE VIII

Section 1. (A) The state may, by law passed with the concurrence of two-thirds of the members elected to each house of the General Assembly, contract debt for capital improvements, capital acquisitions, land, and interests in the foregoing, and for grants, loans, or contributions to municipal corporations, counties, school districts, or other state or local governmental entities, agencies, or instrumentalities for such purposes, and for refunding debt contracted and other obligations incurred for such purposes. Debt for such purposes shall not be contracted if, in any fiscal year, the amount required for principal and interest payments on such debt and on all outstanding debt previously contracted, less any federal subsidies for any such principal or interest, would exceed six per cent of the average of the annual revenues of the state subject to appropriation by the General Assembly, excluding borrowed moneys, moneys received from the Federal Government, and moneys required to be returned by Section 9 of Article XII of this Constitution, received by the state during the two preceding fiscal years. New debt for such purposes shall not be contracted if the total principal amount exceeding eight per cent of such revenue average.

(B) The state may, by law, contract debt to repel invasion, suppress insurrection, or defend the State in war.

(C) The state may, by law, contract debt in addition to that, or for purposes other than those provided for in division (A), of this section, but only if the General Assembly, three-fifths of the members of each house concurring, submits the question of contracting such debt to the electors, and the question is approved by a majority of those voting on the question. The manner of submitting such questions shall be provided by law.

(D) The state may, by law, contract debt during any fiscal year to meet appropriations by the General Assembly made for such fiscal year, but such debt shall be repaid not later than the end of such fiscal year and shall be repaid from revenues of the state other than borrowed moneys.

(E) Debt contracted pursuant to division (B), (C), or (D) of this section shall not be included in the limits of, nor be subject to the requirements of, division (A) or (G) of this section. Section 11 of Article XII does not apply to debt contracted pursuant to this section.

(F) The General Assembly shall provide by law for the payment of the state debt and for the method and procedure for incurring, evidencing, refunding, and retiring state debt. The General Assembly shall appropriate sufficient moneys as will provide for the full and timely payment of the principal and interest on the state debt. If the General Assembly does not, at any time, make such appropriations or if moneys to meet appropriations therefor are not provided, the Treasurer of State shall set aside from moneys held to the credit of the General Revenue Fund and from the first revenues of the state applicable to the General Revenue Fund and any other appropriate funds of the state sufficient sums to provide for such full and timely payment and shall so apply the money set aside.

(G) At least four per cent of the total principal amount of debt outstanding at the beginning of a fiscal year shall be paid, or moneys for such payment set aside, during such fiscal year. For the purposes of division (A) of this section, the General Assembly shall provide for computing required principal and interest payments, and may provide for estimating principal and interest payments on bonds while notes in anticipation thereof are outstanding, for including principal and interest payments on debt contracted to refund or retire prior debt in lieu of such payments on such prior debt, and for the method of computing principal and interest payments on any debt required to be repaid, or for which sinking fund deposits are required, prior to maturity. The Treasurer of State shall determine and certify the annual principal and interest payments on outstanding debt, the revenues of the state subject to appropriation by the General Assembly, and other financial data necessary for the purposes of division (A) of this section, and such certification shall be conclusive for purposes of the validity of any debt contracted pursuant to such division.

(H) For the purposes of this section, "debt" means general obligations of the state to repay moneys borrowed by the state for which repayment the faith, credit, and taxing power of the state are pledged.

EFFECTIVE DATE AND REPEAL.
If adopted by a majority of the electors voting on this amendment, the amendment and schedule shall take immediate effect, and Sections 1, 2, 2b, 2c, 2d, 2e, 2f, 2g, 2h, 3, 7, 9, and 10 of Article VIII, and Section 6 of Article XII shall be repealed from such effective date.

Schedule

STREET CLOSED — The people have spoken, according to Police Chief Robert Temple, and as a result, the entire length of Pinckney Street will be closed to all parking whatsoever for the duration of the Pumpkin Show. "All vehicles found there will be towed, no questions asked," the chief said. Residents on the street initiated a petition to close the street which is part of the parade route. Parking for booth and carnival workers is available at the fairgrounds, Temple said.

Barberton Councilman Ousted

BARBERTON, Ohio (AP) — Albert Canfora, a local councilman who protested gymnasium construction at Kent State University where his son was wounded by Ohio National Guard fire in 1970, has been ousted in a recall election.

Canfora, 51, was arrested during a protest on the campus in July.

"The thing that beat me was the kind of people that went after me and their campaign," Canfora said after the special election Tuesday.

By more than a 3-to-1 margin — 474-133 — Canfora lost the seat he was last elected to in 1975 in this northeastern Ohio community of 33,000 just southwest of Akron.

"I didn't have the time to go to the people of my ward on this. Maybe if I had taken the issue to the people, it would have turned out differently," said Canfora.

Canfora said he planned to ask the Ohio Supreme Court today to nullify the election until he gets a full court hearing on his efforts to void several recall petition signatures.

He contends that 47 of the 227 signatures on the petitions are invalid. The city council, meanwhile, will appoint a successor to fill out Canfora's term, which ends in 1979.

Canfora's opponents rejoiced Tuesday night over his defeat.

"Mr. Canfora was the best worker for his own defeat. People were sick and tired of him harassing them for signing petitions," Eupha McGalliard said.

She said she is interested in taking over Canfora's council seat. The city council has 30 days to name Canfora's replacement.

The campaign against Canfora began almost immediately after he and his family were arrested during a July 12 demonstration against the construction of a gymnasium annex on the Kent State campus.

The demonstrators, including the Canforas, claim the new $6 million building is too close to the site of the shootings.

Canfora's son, Alan, 27, was one of nine students wounded when four others were killed by the guardsmen on May 4, 1970.

Canfora, his wife Ann and their four children have been arrested a total of 15 times during the gym protest which began in May.

This is the second time Canfora has felt the backlash of public opinion over his family's involvement in Kent State protests. The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. employee served four two-year terms beginning in 1964. He was

Ohio Senate To Review Bingo Law

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The troublesome issue of bingo regulation in Ohio is expected to go before the full Senate before adjournment of the abbreviated October session on Thursday.

A House-approved bill intended to close loopholes in the existing charitable bingo law was recommended for passage in a 6-1 vote by the Senate Judiciary Committee Tuesday. The bill is sponsored by Rep. Leonard J. Camera, D-53 Lorain.

As revised by the Senate panel, the legislation would permit bona fide charitable groups to hold two bingo games a week. Groups that own their own hall could bypass one game, and instead rent to another charitable organization for the second bingo game during the same week.

A maximum of $250 could be charged for rent under such conditions and used without restrictions. Proceeds from bingo games, except for minimal expenses, must go to charitable causes.

Festivals involving nonbingo "schemes of chance" could be conducted only by organizations that owned the premises or on government-leased property.

The focus of abuse of the existing law has been through loopholes in the rental clauses according to Sen. Robert E. O'Shaughnessy, D-15 Columbus.

"The problem has come from the charitable organization that does not own, or does not choose to own, its own hall," O'Shaughnessy said.

Here are some other important elements of the legislation as it was reported out of committee:

—Bars bingo workers from receiving payment for their services; current law bars payment, but not receipt of same.

—Expand definition of veterans organizations eligible to hold bingo games to include any post of a national vets group, if it has been operating in Ohio for at least 20 years and has a national dues-paying membership of at least 5,000.

—Bars "midnight bingo" by outlawing games that start after midnight or before 10 a.m.

—Gives the attorney general and local law enforcement officials more investigatory power by making it easier to inspect bingo records.

—Prevents bingo proceeds from being used to pay for building maintenance.

"The problem has come from the charitable organization that does not own, or does not choose to own, its own hall," O'Shaughnessy said.

Here are some other important elements of the legislation as it was reported out of committee:

—Bars bingo workers from receiving payment for their services; current law bars payment, but not receipt of same.

—Expand definition of veterans

organizations eligible to hold bingo games to include any post of a national vets group, if it has been operating in Ohio for at least 20 years and has a national dues-paying membership of at least 5,000.

—Bars "midnight bingo" by outlawing games that start after midnight or before 10 a.m.

—Gives the attorney general and local law enforcement officials more investigatory power by making it easier to inspect bingo records.

—Prevents bingo proceeds from being used to pay for building maintenance.

Reggie Jackson Wins Series For New York Yankees

NEW YORK (AP) — Reggie Jackson, the man who stirred the drink, made it a champagne cocktail. With three magnificently dramatic home runs, he gift-wrapped the New York Yankees' 21st World Series championship.

"I am the straw that stirs the drink," Jackson said before he had ever batted for the Yankees in a major league game. "(Catcher and captain Thurman) Munson can only stir it bad."

Though that comment alienated Munson and touched off the Yankees' soap opera season of conflict and controversy, all was forgotten Tuesday night. Jackson powered New York to an 8-4 victory over the Los Angeles Dodgers and gave the Yankees the World Series, four games to two.

"Ah, the taste of victory," Jackson said, swigging a bottle of champagne in the jubilant Yankees locker room. "This symbolizes victory and being champions."

One year after the Yankees suffered World Series disgrace, a four-game sweep by Cincinnati last October, the Yankees were No. 1—the only number acceptable to owner George Steinbrenner.

Steinbrenner, who bought the Yankees in 1973, is the architect of the Yankees' supremely successful season. It was Steinbrenner who spent $2.9 million to bring the free-agent Jackson to New York.

"The next morning, after we were beaten in four straight by Cincinnati, we began working on this year," Steinbrenner said. "I swore it was not gonna happen again."

"Now, we're on top and we're gonna stay there."

More than any other player, Jackson drove the Yankees to the top. The Series' Most Valuable Player with a record-breaking five homers and a Series-leading .450 batting average, Jackson stoked a hot bat in September to fire the Yankees to the American League East Division crown.

All his hitting heroics helped him overcome a season of mental pressure that would crumble a lesser man. First, there was the spring training remark that degraded Munson, the Most Valuable Player in the AL last year.

Soon after the remark appeared in a national magazine, Jackson had his celebrated run-in with Manager Billy Martin on national television. The two proud men argued and nearly came to blows in their dugout in Boston, and the TV cameras recorded every moment.

But Tuesday night was a time for the Yankees to bask in the thrill of their victory and the awe of witnessing Jackson's home runs—one of the most powerful and theatrical feats in World Series annals.

"He beat us single-handedly," said Dodger first baseman Steve Garvey. "I've never seen a performance like that in the World Series."

It was the sun and the moon of superstar performances.

"Guys throw around the word superstar a lot," said Jackson. "Guys like Ruth, DiMaggio, Mays, Clemente. But I can say I had one day like those guys."

What Jackson did was tie Babe Ruth's record of three homers in one Series game. It started as if Chris Chambliss would be the hitting hero as he had been last year in New York's playoff conquest of the Kansas City Royals. Burt Hooton walked Jackson on four straight pitches in the second inning, and saw him score on Chambliss' home run.

Then Jackson took matters into his own hands. He smashed a screaming line drive into the right field stands on Hooton's first pitch to him in the fourth. Then, in the fifth, he sent one from Elias Sosa on a similar fast trip into the right field seats.

"The balls were in. That's how they tried to pitch me all Series," said Jackson. "You can pitch me in, but don't knock on the door and announce it. Even a dummy will adjust and I adjusted."

Charlie Hough, a knuckleball pitcher, was hurling the eighth inning. He threw his first pitch down and over the plate, but the result was the same: a mammoth homer—this time to center field, an estimated 450 feet away.

"Nothing can top this," said Jackson. "Who the hell is going to hit three homers to decide a World Series? Hell, I'm not."

But he did.

In Game 5, Jackson homered on his last at-bat. So he ended up smashing home runs on each of his last four swings. Overall in the Series, Jackson broke records for most homers (5), most runs scored (10), most consecutive homers in two games (4) and most total bases (25).

The total base record for a six-game Series previously belonged to Martin, the former Yankee second baseman.

"That's fantastic that he broke my record," said Martin. "Reggie's a super guy. Next year will be a lot easier for him."

It should also be easier for Martin, given a big bonus earlier Tuesday by Steinbrenner, who was on the verge of firing his fiery manager several times this season.

"Even the guy who won a million dollars in the lottery can't be as happy as I am," Martin said. "Everything is worthwhile now."

The opposite emotion filled the Los Angeles locker room.

"Great game. You put on quite an exhibition," a somber Dodger Manager Tom Lasorda told Jackson, extending his hand.

So the Dodgers traveled to New York in vain. Their outfielders and relief pitchers in the bullpen were showered with garbage by hostile Yankee fans; Garvey and Dave Lopes received death threats Monday night.

But it still was a wonderful season for the happiness boys from Los Angeles. Their April boom crushed Cincinnati and kept the Reds from a shot at a third straight World Series crown.

"We lived by the long ball all season long and we died by the long ball in the Series," said Lasorda, whose club led the National League in homers and smacked a record-tying nine in the Series, including Reggie Smith's homer Tuesday night.

Smith's third-inning solo homer, his third of the Series, had coupled with Steve Garvey's two-run, first-inning triple to give Los Angeles a brief 3-2 lead. But that was buried under the explosion of Jackson's power; a ninth-inning Dodgers run served only to delay the Yankees' celebration.

"I'm proud of the way the guys battled all year long," said Lasorda, the rookie Dodgers manager.

Mike Torrez, the winning pitcher in the pivotal third game and again in the climactic sixth game, yielded nine hits Tuesday night.

"It was a struggling-type game," said he big right-hander, who, if he remains unsigned, will be eligible for the Nov. 4 re-entry draft. "Reggie was just beautiful. Out of sight."

Namath's Days At An End

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Joe Namath's starting days as a quarterback appear to be at an end.

He will be on the bench again when the Los Angeles Rams face the Minnesota Vikings in a nationally televised National Football League game Monday night, just as he was last Sunday.

Young Pat Haden, the starter for the Rams in the latter part of the 1976 season, was the starter last Sunday against New Orleans, reportedly because of Namath's swollen knee that kept him out of a couple of practice sessions.

This week, Namath can practice, but Haden, the 24-year-old Rhodes scholar, still will do the play-calling. Namath is his backup.

Asked about switching to Haden after the 34-year-old Namath had started the first four regular games, Coach Chuck Knox said Tuesday that last week Namath had a sore knee and "we felt we needed a little change."

Teays Valley Junior High Splits With LE

The Teays Valley seventh grade volleyball team defeated McDowell seventh graders 15-7 in the first game and then lost the next two 12-15 and 7-15 Tuesday. The Viking eighth graders won the first game 15-13, lost the second 11-15 and won the third 15-13.

For the seventh graders Toni Lemaster served 14 points and Kris McQuain eight. For the TV eighth graders, Trish Beavers served 19 points and April Egbert eight. The game was played at Logan Elm McDowell.

The Viking eighth grade has a 2-3 record and the seventh grade is 1-4.

for the Friday date with the Shermans. Among them are the fact that it is the Ross County school's Homecoming, and also that Westfall has never beaten their Friday opponent. The closest any Westfall team has come to topping the Shermans was the 1968 edition of the Westfall eleven, who tied Unioto. The Shermans also have some momentum from a two game winning streak going into this week's game.

Unioto possesses a good quarterback that can run and throw with equal skill. They will run mostly from the open and I wing formations, with some power I in the offense.

They will also run from a 4-4 defense, and that may give the Mustangs some

Tiger Cross Country Team Wins Tri Meet

Circleville won a cross country meet held at Hamilton Twp. Tuesday. The Tiger Harriers scored 25 points, Pickerington 48 and Hamilton 55.

For Circleville, Scott Watters was first in 13:36 for the 2½-mile Course. Stan Lasoski was second in 13:39, Dave Holbrook third in 13:40, Dave McKinney ninth in 14:14, Chuck Adams 10th in 14:22, Jeff Rase 12th in 14:28, Dave Cherrington 15th in 14:44, Dick Obermeyer 21st in 15:38, Robbie Radcliff 23rd in 15:42, John Adams 27th in 16:33 and Bill Rich 32nd in 17:52.

Circleville harriers have a 15-2 regular season record. Tuesday's meet was the final event of the regular season.

The Tigers will participate in the sectional cross country meet at Pine Hills golf course Friday beginning at 10 a.m. The course is located at Carroll.

problems, as Glanton admits that his charges have yet to see that alignment this year.

In speaking of last week's win over Southeastern, Glanton cited Randy Adams for a fine defensive performance at middle guard. Darren Metzger contributed well with his running from the Westfall backfield.

A bit of bad news reached the Mustang camp this week, in that linebacker Mike Moore may be lost for the season. Moore's injury was diagnosed as a depressed vertebrae, and according to Glanton, they are awaiting the results of X-rays before making any final decisions.

The LE Braves will take on Canal Winchester's Indians Friday. Coach Bill Frost stated that the Indians were a hard team to scout because of the wide variety of different offensive and defensive formations that they use.

"Fundamentally, they are not the best team we have faced, but they are winning. (The Indians have a 5-1 record.) They seem to win everything in the fourth quarter," stated Frost.

The Logan Elm mentor brings up a good point though, in the fact that Canal has come through what can be the easiest part of their schedule, while the Braves are just finishing the hardest part of theirs.

The big man for the Indians would have to be signal caller Rhen Blais. Under his direction, the Indians will go with their variety of formations, and from the defense they will go with 5-0, 5-1, 5-2, and a seven diamond, just to name a few.

Games start in both stadiums at 8 p.m.

Vikings Beat Hurricanes In Volleyball

The Teays Valley varsity volleyball team beat Wilmington 15-4, 15-8 on the Hurricane court Monday. The Vikings boosted their second place South Central Ohio League record to 4-1 and are 6-5 overall. Teays Valley trails league-leading Circleville by one game.

P. J. Stiles led the Vikings with an evening of perfect serves and Phyllis Gay made 12 good serves out of 13 tries for 92 percent efficiency.

Carol Ledford and Jill Raymond were perfect in sets as was Ledford and Patty Jones in spikes.

The Vikings reserve squad toppled the previously unbeaten Hurricanes 15-6, 15-8.

Traci Jacobs led the way with 19 perfect serves in as many tries. Annette Riley was 100 percent accurate in the bump department and Tammie Nicholson made 12 of 14 bumps for 85 percent.

Lisa Raymond was 100 percent on sets. Kelly Martin and Jill Sanders were 100 percent on their spikes.

The reserves are 3-2 in SCOL play and 6-5 overall.

Coach Debbie Doherty will send her charges into action Thursday as they host Hamilton Twp. with the reserve match beginning at 5:30 p.m.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Joe Namath's starting days as a quarterback appear to be at an end.

He will be on the bench again when the Los Angeles Rams face the Minnesota Vikings in a nationally televised National Football League game Monday night, just as he was last Sunday.

Young Pat Haden, the starter for the Rams in the latter part of the 1976 season, was the starter last Sunday against New Orleans, reportedly because of Namath's swollen knee that kept him out of a couple of practice sessions.

This week, Namath can practice, but Haden, the 24-year-old Rhodes scholar, still will do the play-calling. Namath is his backup.

Asked about switching to Haden after the 34-year-old Namath had started the first four regular games, Coach Chuck Knox said Tuesday that last week Namath had a sore knee and "we felt we needed a little change."

Teays Valley Junior High Splits With LE

The Teays Valley seventh grade volleyball team defeated McDowell seventh graders 15-7 in the first game and then lost the next two 12-15 and 7-15 Tuesday. The Viking eighth graders won the first game 15-13, lost the second 11-15 and won the third 15-13.

For the seventh graders Toni Lemaster served 14 points and Kris McQuain eight. For the TV eighth graders, Trish Beavers served 19 points and April Egbert eight. The game was played at Logan Elm McDowell.

The Viking eighth grade has a 2-3 record and the seventh grade is 1-4.

for the Friday date with the Shermans. Among them are the fact that it is the Ross County school's Homecoming, and also that Westfall has never beaten their Friday opponent. The closest any Westfall team has come to topping the Shermans was the 1968 edition of the Westfall eleven, who tied Unioto. The Shermans also have some momentum from a two game winning streak going into this week's game.

Unioto possesses a good quarterback that can run and throw with equal skill. They will run mostly from the open and I wing formations, with some power I in the offense.

They will also run from a 4-4 defense, and that may give the Mustangs some

Tiger Cross Country Team Wins Tri Meet

Circleville won a cross country meet held at Hamilton Twp. Tuesday. The Tiger Harriers scored 25 points, Pickerington 48 and Hamilton 55.

For Circleville, Scott Watters was first in 13:36 for the 2 1/2-mile Course. Stan Lasoski was second in 13:39, Dave Holbrook third in 14:14, Dave McKinney ninth in 14:14, Chuck Adams 10th in 14:22, Jeff Rase 12th in 14:28, Dave Cherrington 15th in 14:44, Dick Obermeyer 21st in 15:38, Robbie Radcliff 23rd in 15:42, John Adams 27th in 16:33 and Bill Rich 32nd in 17:52.

Circleville harriers have a 15-2 regular season record. Tuesday's meet was the final event of the regular season.

The Tigers will participate in the sectional cross country meet at Pine Hills golf course Friday beginning at 10 a.m. The course is located at Carroll.

problems, as Glanton admits that his charges have yet to see that alignment this year.

In speaking of last week's win over Southeastern, Glanton cited Randy Adams for a fine defensive performance at middle guard. Darren Metzger contributed well with his running from the Westfall backfield.

A bit of bad news reached the Mustang camp this week, in that linebacker Mike Moore may be lost for the season. Moore's injury was diagnosed as a depressed vertebrae, and according to Glanton, they are awaiting the results of X-rays before making any final decisions.

The LE Braves will take on Canal Winchester's Indians Friday. Coach Bill Frost stated that the Indians were a hard team to scout because of the wide variety of different offensive and defensive formations that they use.

"Fundamentally, they are not the best team we have faced, but they are winning. (The Indians have a 5-1 record.) They seem to win everything in the fourth quarter," stated Frost.

The Logan Elm mentor brings up a good point though, in the fact that Canal has come through what can be the easiest part of their schedule, while the Braves are just finishing the hardest part of theirs.

The big man for the Indians would have to be signal caller Rhen Blais. Under his direction, the Indians will go with their variety of formations, and from the defense they will go with 5-0, 5-1, 5-2, and a seven diamond, just to name a few.

Games start in both stadiums at 8 p.m.

Vikings Beat Hurricanes In Volleyball

The Teays Valley varsity volleyball team beat Wilmington 15-4, 15-8 on the Hurricane court Monday. The Vikings boosted their second place South Central Ohio League record to 4-1 and are 6-5 overall. Teays Valley trails league-leading Circleville by one game.

P. J. Stiles led the Vikings with an evening of perfect serves and Phyllis Gay made 12 good serves out of 13 tries for 92 percent efficiency.

Carol Ledford and Jill Raymond were perfect in sets as was Ledford and Patty Jones in spikes.

The Vikings reserve squad toppled the previously unbeaten Hurricanes 15-6, 15-8.

Traci Jacobs led the way with 19 perfect serves in as many tries. Annette Riley was 100 percent accurate in the bump department and Tammie Nicholson made 12 of 14 bumps for 85 percent.

Lisa Raymond was 100 percent on sets. Kelly Martin and Jill Sanders were 100 percent on their spikes.

The reserves are 3-2 in SCOL play and 6-5 overall.

Coach Debbie Doherty will send her charges into action Thursday as they host Hamilton Twp. with the reserve match beginning at 5:30 p.m.

Regrets Passing Up Boy Who Was Shorter

DEAR ABBY: With the school social season just commencing, you'd be doing a real service to urge girls not to pass up a boy just because he's short.

During my college years, a wonderful fellow tried many times to date me. He was bright, popular, kind and had a great sense of humor, but he had one fault. He was shorter than I was. So I never dated him.

Finally I married a tall, handsome college athlete. He's conceited, lazy and dumb. We live from hand to mouth.

The short fellow I wouldn't even date is now a very successful professional man. He married a beautiful girl who adores him. She's half-a-head taller than he is, but nobody seems to notice. She has a beautiful home, status and security. Everytime I see her, I think, "there but for the cockeyed values of my youth go I."

Print this, Abby. Many girls can learn from it.

MISSED THE BOAT

DEAR MISSED: And speaking of boats that have been missed, let's look at the guys who've left themselves on the dock.

I refer to fellows who wouldn't date a girl because she was a little too short, or tall, or skinny, or plump. She may have been intelligent, kind, lots of fun and eager to please, but because she had less-than-lovely limbs or an unfortunate complexion, she was bypassed.

So now that the school season is commencing, boys, look around. Give the plain girls a chance. You may do yourself a favor that will last about 50 years.

DEAR ABBY: The letter from the 13-year-old boy who impregnated a 15-year-old girl seemed to contain overtones of "macho bragging." He said, "The parents made a terrible fuss." What did he expect — a new bicycle?

Abby, I wish you had said that although puberty may occur quite early in some boys, it is not the only sign of manhood. A real man of any age handles his sexuality in a responsible manner.

N.Y. READER

DEAR READER: Well said. And so does a real woman.

DEAR ABBY: My husband was recently honored at a banquet by the company he works for.

At the end of the program, he was called upon to say a few words. When he reached the microphone, everyone stood up and applauded.

As his wife, I felt it would be out of place for me to stand up and applaud my husband, but my heart was applauding.

SECOND THOUGHT

DEAR SECOND: I think you should have applauded with your HANDS as well as with your heart.

Motorists Swear By It, Patrolmen Swear At It

CLEVELAND (AP) — Enterprising motorists swear by it. Highway troopers swear at it. It's a beeping dash board gadget that detects police radar.

"As soon as we turned the corner onto the street, boom, we had them," said Frank Sustar, a retired Euclid policeman who tested a radar detector for the city last year. "It surprised me. I never thought that little box would work like that."

The gadgets, with brand names such as "Fuzzbuster" and "Snooper," beep

when they pick up radar beams. Presumably, they give the motorist enough time to slow down and avoid a speeding ticket. Prices range between $50 and $180.

While citizen-band (CB) radios have been used to accomplish the same thing, radar detectors, which are tuned to the radio frequency of police radar, are increasingly coming into vogue.

About 80,000 Ohioans already own such units, said Dale Smith, president of Electrolet, a Troy, Ohio, firm which makes the "Fuzzbuster." Smith added that as many as three million detectors will be on the road nationwide by 1980.

The popularity and effectiveness of radar detectors has prompted some police to use more sophisticated radar equipment. Police are beginning to broadcast on different frequencies than those picked up the conventional radar detectors. Some police have stopped relying on a continuous radar beam to clock a motorist's speed.

A spokesman for the Highway Patrol said their cruisers don't have the more sophisticated units, but he said the patrol is supporting legislation which would outlaw radar detectors.

Virginia and Connecticut are the only states which ban the sale of radar detectors and make it illegal for motorists to possess them. State Rep. Dale Locker, D-Anna, has introduced a bill which would outlaw use of radar detectors in the state but not their manufacture.

See-Saw Marathon Raises Funds

IOWA CITY, Iowa (AP) — Dismounting is its own reward after a marathon see-saw ride for charity.

"Sometimes you'd hobble back into the house like you just got off a horse or something," said Brian Walters, an organizer of a week-long teeterin by University of Iowa fraternity and sorority members who raised $6,000 for the March of Dimes.

For 168 hours, about 90 students took turns, a half hour to an hour at a time, rain or shine, night and day.

At some points, fraternity members employed weights from barbell sets to balance unevenly-matched couples.

"If you have a guy who weighs 220 pounds and a girl who only weighs 100 pounds, you have to have something to counterbalance it," said Walters.

Computers Used
In Spinal Surgery

CLEVELAND (AP) — Computers are being used at University Hospitals here to prevent delicate spinal surgery from resulting in paralysis.

Computer monitoring of spinal surgery has been tested since 1972, and although the use of the computers is still considered experimental, wide interest has developed since surgeons report continued success in using the machines.

Anesthetics usually prevent surgeons from detecting those impulses, sometimes resulting in damage to the spinal cord during typical operations correction of spinal curvature.

The Cleveland hospitals reported that in 75 spinal operations, the computer spotted potential danger four times. In two of those cases, operating doctors were able to alter their procedures to prevent paralysis.

CLEVELAND (AP) — Computers are being used at University Hospitals here to prevent delicate spinal surgery from resulting in paralysis.

Computer monitoring of spinal surgery has been tested since 1972, and although the use of the computers is still considered experimental, wide interest has developed since surgeons report continued success in using the machines.

Patients' brain waves are monitored during spinal surgery to determine if electric shocks to the limbs are transmitted along the spine to the brain.

Anesthetics usually prevent surgeons from detecting those impulses, sometimes resulting in damage to the spinal cord during typical operations correction of spinal curvature.

The Cleveland hospitals reported that in 75 spinal operations, the computer spotted potential danger four times. In two of those cases, operating doctors were able to alter their procedures to prevent paralysis.

Student Of The Month

JOY BIDWELL

By DEBBIE MCKEAN
The members of Mustang Country would like to present Joy Bidwell with the honored title "Student of the Month." This award will be presented monthly to the student who we feel plays an important part at Westfall not only in school activities but also in the grades they receive. In their own special ways, these students can be considered "The Pride of the Mustangs."

Joy is the daughter of Winfred Bidwell and resides on Grice Road, Williamsport. She is a senior at Westfall and retains a 3.8 average. Out of the 138 Seniors Joy ranks third in the class. Joy is active in many school clubs, in which she holds offices, vice-president of the F.N.A., vice-president of the choir, secretary of the Science Club, and secretary of the S.A.E. Club. She also participates in the P.T.L. Club, Swing Choir, and is an active member of the National Honor Society. Her activities outside of the school include playing softball for the United Methodist Church in Williamsport, being director of the youth choir, representative of the District Youth in U.M.Y.F., and holding such offices as Secretary of the Youth Grange, Lady Assistant Steward of the Star Grange, and President of the United Methodist Youth Group. She is planning to join the District Youth Choir in the future.

During the summer Joy attended the Lancaster Branch of the Ohio University where she studied General Psychology. She is presently engaged in a voice class at Capital University.

When Joy learned she had been chosen for this month's award she said she was surprised and pleased to be recognized. Joy feels that the urge to learn, actively studying and asking for the time to study and to remember what is necessary through prayer has given her the ability to receive and keep her excellent average.

The Mustang Country Staff would like to congratulate Joy and wish her the best in anything she may attempt in the future.

Williamsport News

By EILEEN EASTERDAY, Phone 986-3481

Beginning with this column, I shall with some frequency (I hope) bring to you introductions to members of our Williamsport community. It is only fitting and proper that we begin with our official first family, Mayor and Mrs. Paul Long. Paul is a son of Herschel and the late Eva Long and Marguerite is a daughter of Robert and the late Eva Layton. She spent her childhood until early adulthood years in the community of Commercial Point and is an alumnus of the former Scioto Township school system now a part of Teays Valley. Paul was reared in the Five Points, Monroe Township area and is a graduate of that school system which is now incorporated in to the Westfall district. For many years the couple has affiliated with the Five Points Christian Church with Paul at one time being superintendent there. The couple was married March 7, 1945 in the Mt. Sterling Methodist Church and for more than 20 years farmed in the Monroe Twp. community where Paul also served several years as a township trustee.

He is a 15 year 4-H advisor, organizer of Little League in that township, 3 term master of Star Grange, served on Pickaway County 4-H advisory council and a former trustee of his church. Presently he is associated with Flo-Lizer and is a member of the Elks besides his civic duties. Paul is an avid sports fan, that encompasses all sports while Marguerite considers cooking her main hobby coupled with a keen interest in dining out and trying new dishes.

They are the parents of two children: Paul Eugene Long II, a well known Circleville attorney, who is a graduate of Ohio University and Toledo University Law School. Gene and his wife Gunny are residents in Knollwood Village; Joyce Hoddinott lives in St. Petersburg, Florida and she and her husband Ron are both teachers. Joyce is a graduate of Ohio State having elected to attend there after one year at Ohio U. Grandchildren number 5 for the Longs. They are Paul Eugene Long III and Todd Long of Circleville, very recently born Charles Ryan Hoddinott and Steven and Annie Eshelman of Circleville.

Paul became mayor of our town at the November 1973 election to complete the 2 year unfinished term of resigned mayor Earl Anderson. November 1975 he was elected to his own 4 year term which he is presently serving. Marguerite is now on medical retirement through the public employees association for whom she worked in a couple different capacities for a number of years. The Longs purchased the Howard and Pauline Pond property on S. Main St. a few years ago and that has been their home since becoming Williamsport residents. And now you have met our Mayor and his first lady. Be sure to say Hello when you see them as they are friendly folks and will be pleased to have a brief chat.

Getting in a last of the season fling at Kings Island were Bill and Marcia Horsch and images Sheryl and Kenneth plus lucky guests Amy Easterday and Robbie Adams. The fun time had been planned for last Sunday but had to be postponed until this past Sunday which was much better weatherwise even though they experienced some snow flurries and a bit of hail. When you're having fun who cares?

Joyous news in these parts is the arrival of a new heir to Don and Sandra McCafferty Clingenpeel of Hurst, Texas which is a suburb of the Ft. Worth-Dallas area. Master Chad Michael made his appearance on October 3 at 3 p.m. weighing 7 lbs. 10 ozs. at Arlington Memorial Hospital in Hurst. Sandy is a '62 Williamsport graduate and is a daughter of Claude "Big Mike" and Ruth McCafferty. Grandmother Ruth returned to her Circleville home this past Saturday after being with the Clingenpeels for three weeks. Little Chad is eagerly welcomed by brother Taaron, 12 and sister Kendal, 8. The family has lived in Texas about a year having been transferred there at the time.

Homer and Alma Long will be guests of honor at a family golden wedding reception next Sunday to be held in the home of David and Rita Long on Route 207 from 1 until 3 p.m. The 50th anniversary couple was honored Saturday evening when their five sons, one daughter and respective spouses gathered at the new Terrace Lounge at Washington C.H. for dinner. Darrell and Carol Long drove in from Quantico, Va., Bill and Valli Long came up from Daartown, Charles and Sally Long were here from Worthington Hills, Don and Alma Jean Adams from Circleville, Carl and Ruth Long of Williamsport, David and Rita Long from Atlanta. While the celebrating was taking place Jan Long (offspring of Carl and Ruth) had come home for

Protsman Funeral Services Scheduled

SEBRING, Ohio (AP) — Services will be Wednesday in Sebring, Ohio, for Hannah Laird Protsman, former first executive secretary of the Association of Ohio Philanthropic Homes for the Aging. the weekend from Miami University and kept Natalie and Deanna Long, and a friend of theirs from Quantico plus Chad and Doug Long of Worthington Hills occupied or was it the other way around — they kept her occupied. One of these days we will hear the exciting news from their corner that Darrell has made Lt. Col. Super great!

Cards have been put in the mail notifying of a Deercreek Dam Days Festival meeting to be held Oct. 24, 8 p.m. at American Legion Hall in our village. Everyone is more than welcome to attend and it is not necessary to be "invited." This public notice serves as an invitation to all interested persons. We must put into action firm plans for the 1978 show as well as discussions on a few other agenda items. Please come.

On Oct. 31 be sure to plan a late dinner hour or a very early one because the little spooks, ghoules, goblins, witches, devils and what-have-you will be knocking on doors with the familiar chant of trick or treat from 5 until 6:30 p.m. At 7 p.m. they are all invited to participate in the annual American Legion Halloween party to be held at the Pavilion.

If Monday's weather was any forecast for the remainder of the week the Pumpkin Show should enjoy pleasant days this year which would be a welcome relief from the past couple of years. We expect to be there each day barring a blizzard.

Be with you again soon, the Lord willing. Take care. Think About: Happiness multiplies when divided with others.

By EILEEN EASTERDAY, Phone 986-3481

Beginning with this column, I shall with some frequency (I hope) bring to you introductions to members of our Williamsport community. It is only fitting and proper that we begin with our official first family, Mayor and Mrs. Paul Long. Paul is a son of Herschel and the late Eva Long and Marguerite is a daughter of Robert and the late Eva Layton. She spent her childhood until early adulthood years in the community of Commercial Point and is an alumnus of the former Scioto Township school system now a part of Teays Valley. Paul was reared in the Five Points, Monroe Township area and is a graduate of that school system which is now incorporated in the Westfall district. For many years the couple has affiliated with the Five Points Christian Church with Paul at one time being superintendent there. The couple was married March 7, 1945 in the Mt. Sterling Methodist Church and for more than 20 years farmed in the Monroe Twp. community where Paul also served several years as a township trustee.

He is a 15 year 4-H advisor, organizer of Little League in that township, 3 term master of Star Grange, served on Pickaway County 4-H advisory council and a former trustee of his church. Presently he is associated with Flo-Lizer and is a member of the Elks besides his civic duties. Paul is an avid sports fan, that encompasses all sports while Marguerite considers cooking her main hobby coupled with a keen interest in dining out and trying new dishes.

They are the parents of two children: Paul Eugene Long II, a well known Circleville attorney, who is a graduate of Ohio University and Toledo University Law School. Gene and his wife Gunny are residents in Knollwood Village; Joyce Hoddinott lives in St. Petersburg, Florida and she and her husband Ron are both teachers. Joyce is a graduate of Ohio State having elected to attend there after one year at Ohio U. Grandchildren number 5 for the Longs. They are Paul Eugene Long III and Todd Long of Circleville, very recently born Charles Ryan Hoddinott and Steven and Annie Eshelman of Circleville.

Paul became mayor of our town at the November 1973 election to complete the 2 year unfinished term of resigned mayor Earl Anderson. November 1975 he was elected to his own 4 year term which he is presently serving. Marguerite is now on medical retirement through the public employees association for whom she worked in a couple different capacities for a number of years. The Longs purchased the Howard and Pauline Pond property on S. Main St. a few years ago and that has been their home since becoming Williamsport residents. And now you have met our Mayor and his first lady. Be sure to say Hello when you see them as they are friendly folks and will be pleased to have a brief chat.

Getting in a last of the season fling at Kings Island were Bill and Marcia Horch and images Sheryl and Kenneth plus lucky guests Amy Easterday and Robbie Adams. The fun time had been planned for last Sunday but had to be postponed until this past Sunday which was much better weatherwise even though they experienced some snow flurries and a bit of hail. When you're having fun who cares?

Joyous news in these parts is the arrival of a new heir to Don and Sandra McCafferty Clingenpeel of Hurst, Texas which is a suburb of the Ft. Worth-Dallas area. Master Chad Michael made his appearance on October 3 at 3 p.m. weighing 7 lbs. 10 ozs. at Arlington Memorial Hospital in Hurst. Sandy is a '62 Williamsport graduate and is a daughter of Claude "Big Mike" and Ruth McCafferty. Grandmother Ruth returned to her Circleville home this past Saturday after being with the Clingenpeels for three weeks. Little Chad is eagerly welcomed by brother Taaron, 12 and sister Kendal, 8. The family has lived in Texas about a year having been transferred there at the time.

Homer and Alma Long will be guests of honor at a family golden wedding reception next Sunday to be held in the home of David and Rita Long on Route 207 from 1 until 3 p.m. The 50th anniversary couple was honored Saturday evening when their five sons, one daughter and respective spouses gathered at the new Terrace Lounge at Washington C.H. for dinner. Darrell and Carol Long drove in from Quantico, Va., Bill and Valli Long came up from Daartown, Charles and Sally Long were here from Worthington Hills, Don and Alma Jean Adams from Circleville, Carl and Ruth Long of Williamsport, David and Rita Long from Atlanta. While the celebrating was taking place Jan Long (offspring of Carl and Ruth) had come home for the weekend from Miami University and kept Natalie and Deanna Long, and a friend of theirs from Quantico plus Chad and Doug Long of Worthington Hills occupied or was it the other way around — they kept her occupied. One of these days we will hear the exciting news from their corner that Darrell has made Lt. Col. Super great!

Protsman Funeral Services Scheduled

SEBRING, Ohio (AP) — Services will be Wednesday in Sebring, Ohio, for Hannah Laird Protsman, former first executive secretary of the Association of Ohio Philanthropic Homes for the Aging. Miss Protsman, 95, died Sunday at the Copeland Oaks Retirement Home in Sebring. Burial will be in Norwalk, Ohio.

Cards have been put in the mail notifying of a Deercreek Dam Days Festival meeting to be held Oct. 24, 8 p.m. at American Legion Hall in our village. Everyone is more than welcome to attend and it is not necessary to be "invited." This public notice serves as an invitation to all interested persons. We must put into action firm plans for the 1978 show as well as discussions on a few other agenda items. Please come.

On Oct. 31 be sure to plan a late dinner hour or a very early one because the little spooks, ghouls, goblins, witches, devils and what-have-you will be knocking on doors with the familiar chant of trick or treat from 5 until 6:30 p.m. At 7 p.m. they are all invited to participate in the annual American Legion Halloween party to be held at the Pavilion.

If Monday's weather was any forecast for the remainder of the week the Pumpkin Show should enjoy pleasant days this year which would be a welcome relief from the past couple of years. We expect to be there each day barring a blizzard.

Be with you again soon, the Lord willing. Take care. Think About: Happiness multiplies when divided with others.

Your Horoscope

By FRANCIS DRAKE

What kind of day will tomorrow be? To find out what the stars say, read the forecast given for your birth sign.

FOR THURSDAY
ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 20): The Aries likes room for action, new projects, the means to improve undesirable situations. This day promises the opportunity for all of these. You should accomplish a great deal.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 to May 21): Without realizing it, you may be a victim of your own fears and misgivings. Pull yourself together. This is a day which calls for clear thinking and definite action. Delays could prove costly.

GEMINI (May 22 to June 21): Restraint and control of the emotions needed in discussions. Listen to all and judge objectively. Leave out personalities and conjecture. Don't let the "double talk" of others confuse you.

CANCER (June 22 to July 23): Be careful how you invest both time and money. No matter how enticing a new proposition may sound, give it careful thought. You COULD be taken in by rosy promises, if not on guard.

LEO (July 24 to Aug. 23): There will be much contriving and maneuvering for best position. Don't be left at the post. Achievement is possible in out-of-the-ordinary ways and places. Be resourceful.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 to Sept. 23): A certain amount of daring could prove profitable, but don't let your imagination run out of bounds. The virgoan is usually foresighted. May he be so now!

LIBRA (Sept. 24 to Oct. 23): It may be advisable to slacken your gait in order to detect error of method or details overlooked. But don't stop dead. Keep working toward ultimate objectives.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 to Nov. 22): Don't head into complications. Steer a clear course and focus ambitions on an attainable plateau. Don't strive for the unreasonable.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 to Dec. 21): Business matters, difficult tasks, long-range planning favored now. But don't rush into things. Have patience, be vigilant and precise.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20): Competition is still on the move. Get with it and gear yourself to the demands which are appropriate.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19): Gains from past good efforts indicated, but don't rest on your laurels. There are further goals to reach, so keep on giving your best.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20): Generous influences on the whole. Both artistry and imagination stimulated. Use both well and results will please.

YOU BORN TODAY are usually versatile and, like the Gemini, COULD scatter energies but, because you tend to be thorough (even too meticulous at times), you seldom drop a project before it is completed. You have an impressionable mind — a good asset if carefully controlled. Art, music, and the theater attracts you, and you could even earn a living in any one of these fields. Birthdate of: Sir Christopher Wren, English architect; John Dewey, philosopher; Mickey Mantle, baseball outfielder; Art Buchwald, newspaper columnist.

Canada and the United States signed a treaty in 1932 providing for construction of the St. Lawrence Seaway.

Friedrich Engels, who wrote the Communist Manifesto with Karl Marx, died at the age of 75.

Views On Television

By JAY SHARBUTT
AP Television Writer
LOS ANGELES (AP) —

When last seen, Pat McCormick sat gloomily in a Hollywood bistro. He was bemoaning a great fiscal loss incurred by his investment in a diaper service in Sun City.

He recently was asked how he plans to recoup his loss. "Well," he said, "I bought into a cyclamate factory ..."

But the six-foot-six, 250-pound Irishman needn't depend on that for a living. He's a top comedy writer here, with 5½ years on "Tonight," plus credit on a string of comedy specials and movies.

In the last three years, he's also acted in four movies — "The Shaggy D.A.," Robert Altman's "Buffalo Bill and the Indians," Burt Reynolds' "Smoky and the Bandit" and Altman's new "A Wedding."

It now turns out that this mustachioed citizen, once honored as "The World's Tallest Leprechaun," has yet another career going — in radio comedy, a species of entertainment heretofore believed extinct.

He and a partner, Al Barzman, produce and star in a show called "Studio B." It's a series of weird 90-second interviews they've syndicated to radio stations nationally since June 1976.

McCormick, who says 190 stations air the chats, always is the interviewee. It's doubtful any of them ever will make Barbara Walters' list of people in need of interviewing.

For example, one is a humpdriener in a camel wash. Another is the tiniest man in the world. Another is a worthy Pat calls "the guy who predicts the past."

McCormick, born in Lakewood, Ohio and educated at Harvard, says he and Barzman also will have a sequel soon, "Studio B-2." It features other players in addition to the original cast of two.

It's strange McCormick is loose in radio humor, as he's been a full-time TV writer ever since a pal, comedian Jonathan Winters, wangled him to work on "Tonight" when Jack Parr was the main event.

Asked for an explanation, he said his for-ears career began six years ago when he and Barzman, who makes commercials, teamed up to do off-the-wall comedy ads touting various products. All were for radio.

"We'd go in the back studio and wing 'em," he said, meaning they made it up sans script. "Then it occurred to us, maybe we could do that with a syndicated radio show, just go in and wing it."

A non-radio matter: What will McCormick do if that cyclamate factory he invested in fails? He pondered the prospect a minute.

"Well," he confidently declared, "I'll probably open a suit shop for tall and portly men in Tokyo ..."

Canada and the United States signed a treaty in 1932 providing for construction of the St. Lawrence Seaway.

Friederich Engels, who wrote the Communist Manifesto with Karl Marx, died at the age of 75.

1. Card of Thanks

We the family of Dale E. Folliard want to express our sincere thanks to all the friends, neighbors and relatives who sent cards and flowers during the long illness and death of our father. A special thank you to the Kirkpatrick Funeral Home of New Holland for their kindness and consideration.

Mr. & Mrs. Donald E. Campbell & Son

Gerald E. Folliard

This is the only way we know how to express our sincere gratitude to all who were so helpful, thoughtful, and kind to share in our sorrow during the tragedy that struck our lives on Oct. 2nd, when our Son and Brother Tommy Hart was taken from us to go be with Jesus. Through this we hope everyone will know how grateful we are for all the kind deeds, floral contributions, donations of money that were given to us, the churches, food, and the many cards we have received. And most of all your prayers. We did not realize we had so many wonderful friends and neighbors. A very special thanks to all of you. We would also like to send a special thank you to the Rev. Paul Mercer for the wonderful job he did and the singers Gayle Anderson, Leota Stevens, and also to Lola Wiggins, and to everyone who came to comfort us and share in our sorrow when it was needed so much. We would also like to express our thanks to the Wellman-Reams Funeral Home for the fine work they did and their comfort and prayers. And also to Paul Smith for his ambulance service and to the nurses at Berger Hospital. We also want to thank everyone at the Logan Elm School for what they did, and to Tommy's bus driver Betty Ebert and all the children on bus number 29. Tommy's love will live on in our hearts and the hearts of many others until eternity.

God Bless You All

1. Card of Thanks

We the family of Dale E. Folliard, want to express our sincere thanks to all the friends, neighbors and relatives who sent cards and flowers during the long illness and death of our father. A special thank you to the Kirkpatrick Funeral Home of New Holland for their kindness and consideration.

Mr. & Mrs. Donald E. Campbell
Mrs. Carolyn Jean Hamby & Family
Mr. & Mrs. William Tackett & Family
Gerald E. Folliard

This is the only way we know how to express our sincere gratitude to all who were so helpful, thoughtful, and kind to share in our sorrow during the tragedy that struck our lives on Oct. 2nd, when our Son and Brother Tommy Hart was taken from us to go to be with Jesus. Through this we hope everyone will know how grateful we are for all the kind deeds, floral contributions, donations of money that were given to us, the churches, food, and the many cards we have received. And most of all your prayers. We did not realize we had so many wonderful friends and neighbors. A very special thanks to all of you. We would also like to send a special thank you to the Rev. Paul Mercer for the wonderful job he did and the singers Gayle Anderson, Leota Stevens, and also to Lola Wiggins, and to everyone who came to our sorrow when it was needed so much. We would also like to express our thanks to the Wellman-Reams Funeral Home for the fine work they did and their comfort and prayers. And also to Paul Smith for his ambulance service and to the nurses at Berger Hospital. We also want to thank everyone at the Logan Elm School for what they did, and to Tommy's bus driver Betty Ebert and all the children on bus number 29. Tommy's love will live on in our hearts and the hearts of many others until eternity.

God Bless You All
The Robert Hart Family

Jackson Proves Value To Team

By WILL GRIMSLEY
AP Special Correspondent

Okay, Reggie, you have proven your point. Let no man say otherwise. You are indeed the straw that stirs the drink. You are the eye of the storm. You are the spark that fires the ignition. You make things happen.

Let it be your monument in history: The ball player who never hit .300 in a regular season yet the man who could always reach back for that special kind of magic that turns paupers into kings.

Even your once-bitter rival, Thurman Munson, had to admit it.

"Without him," said Munson, "we wouldn't have won the pennant. Without him, we wouldn't have won the World Series."

Such is the story of the baseball life of Reginald Martinez Jackson, the Wyncote, Pa., tailor's son whose ability to produce under pressure sparked the Oakland A's to World Championships in 1972, 1973 and 1974.

Now you have done it for the proud and haughty New York Yankees, just as your boss and benefactor, George Steinbrenner III, said you would.

A record five home runs in the World Series, three in one game, four in four official atbats, 10 runs scored, eight runs batted in, a .450 batting average — an individual performance on a level with the immortals.

"The word superstar is overused — Ruth, DiMaggio, Mays, Clemente," you told reporters modestly. "But I can say I had one day like those guys."

Indeed you did. But it wasn't easy. Remember all those lonely, frustrating moments during the summer.

You were the "Teacher's Pet." The boss took you in his limousine and showed you the town. He signed you to a $2.9-million contract.

This made you the most unpopular man in the Yankees clubhouse. Munson, the Most Valuable Player of the previous year, got mad when you told a magazine writer that you were "the straw that stirred the drink." You said Munson could only stir it bad.

It was an undiplomatic thing to say, but you are not diplomatic. You say what comes to your tongue. No subtleties. No deviousness. You take the consequences. The consequences were costly.

Munson refused to shake your hand. Third baseman Graig Nettles made unhappy noises. Players with the same color of dark skin moved their lockers to the other side of the room.

There you sat, alone and brooding, on your locker stool — not liked by the manager and ignored by almost everyone but backup catcher Fran Healy, whose friendship never wavered.

35. Music Instruments

PIANO — two used pianos and organs for sale in your area. For more information, call or write Credit Manager, 154 West Main Street, Lancaster, 41330. 1-654-5874.

The manager, accustomed to center stage, resented you. He wouldn't bat you cleanup. Once he yanked you in front of a national television audience and, when you objected to the indignity, the two of you almost came to blows in the dugout.

Yet it was you who interceded when the manager was about to be fired. You helped save his job.

It was an agonizing summer.

The fans were goaded by a hostile press. They booed you at every turn. Pressures, even with your princely salary, became almost unbearable. Your father quit coming up from Philadelphia to watch you play. Your mother wouldn't turn on the radio.

Remember how you sat in your loneliness and said to yourself, "Why do I have to take all of this stuff? I have a good job waiting for me outside."

Quitting would have been easy, but it was not your way. It was a word you didn't know. You owed too much to too many, so you stuck it out.

You were "Mister September" in the Yankees' fierce pennant drive. You closed your lips and tightened the grip on your bat. You became the Yankees' sparkplug, and everybody knew it. Your life changed.

And the climax came just before 11 p.m. on a chill Tuesday night when you propelled your third home run of the evening into the black-painted unoccupied bleachers in deep center field.

And out there in center field somewhere, the TV cameras zeroed in on a bronze plaque of the great Babe Ruth. The old Bambino seemed to wear a smile.

Hayes Pulls No Punches

CHICAGO (AP) — Woody Hayes didn't pull any punches.

When asked about Ohio State's football clash with Big Ten rival Northwestern this Saturday, Hayes said flatly, "We are going to beat them."

Northwestern has lost 22 of its last 23 games. Hayes cannot conceive of his Buckeyes becoming Northwestern's first victim of the season — and said so in a telephone interview with the Chicago Football Writers Tuesday.

"They could do it if we allowed them, but we're not going to allow them to beat us," said Woody. "Not only will we be prepared but we have better football players and more of them. For that reason we'll win."

"I have great respect for John Pont as a coach and had him as a player in college and wouldn't take him lightly," said Hayes. "He has done a creditable job in spite of not winning."

Hayes is especially pleased with his Ohio State defense despite a loneone-point loss to Oklahoma.

"Our defense throttled Oklahoma for three quarters after Oklahoma had a great start," said Hayes. "Our offense lost that game with fumbles. Then we went to SMU and hit a fellow who had a hot hand and we intercepted seven times."

"Then we went against Purdue which has an equally good passer and did a good job. Iowa has a good football team and our defense stopped them for 58 minutes," said Hayes.

"We have 16 interceptions because we play the ball," continued Woody. "We have depth and spirit—all in all we have a doggone good defense."

Hayes said his players are unconcerned when he sends in the reserves and Ohio State loses what might have been shutout.

"The other youngsters deserve a chance to play and it's good for squad morale."

What about Northwestern's morale?

"That's no problem," said Pont. "Our players will be ready to play. We've been an up and down team this season and this should be our down week after a good game at Minnesota, but I'm not expecting that. I think it will be an interesting game."

Chocolate was brought to Europe by the invaders of Mexico, under the leadership of Hernando Cortes, around 1519.

Pros And Cons Of Issue 2

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Passage of Issue 2 on the November ballot would make use of leghold traps in Ohio a crime. It also would permit anyone to seek an injunction to stop a violation of the ban and to recover court costs and attorney fees.

Proponents of the issue, who got it on the ballot through initiative petition, say leghold traps are cruel and unnecessary and can be replaced with so-called quick-kill traps.

Those fighting passage disagree, saying the leghold trap is needed for predator control and to fight disease, as well as for the $8 million raw fur business in Ohio — the second largest state income from fur trapping in the nation.

The proposed amendment reads this way:

"1. To prohibit any person from using in this state leghold traps in the trapping of wild birds or wild four-legged animals (quadrupeds) and also to prohibit any person from using any trapping device in a manner which will cause continued prolonged suffering to such birds or animals;

"2. To provide that each separate violation of this amendment is a crime; and

"3. To provide that any person may bring a civil action for injunction to stop a violation and to recover costs and attorneys' fees."

Opponents argue that the wording of the proposal would outlaw all trapping because "continued, prolonged suffering" covers any action in which a wild bird or wild animal is held against its will; includes household traps, because mice have four legs and are wild and such traps don't always kill

HOME WANTED — The pup in the picture above is a male black and white mixed breed and is three months old. He is waiting for new owners at the Pickaway County Animal Shelter, or by calling 474-3741 or 474-1395. The Pickaway County Humane Society reminds you that November 6 is the Farm Bureau Animal Rabies Clinic. Be sure to have your pet immunized at one of the six locations throughout the county.

NOTICE OF ELECTION

IN EXCESS OF THE TEN MILL LIMITATION

NOTICE is hereby given that in pursuance of a Resolution of the Board of County Commissioners of the Pickaway County, Ohio, passed on the 6th day of September, 1977, there will be submitted to a vote of the people of said Pickaway County at a General ELECTION to be held in the district of Pickaway County Ohio, at the regular places of voting therein, on Tuesday, the 8th day of November, 1977, the question of levying, in excess of the ten mill limitation, for the benefit of Pickaway County for the purpose of building, maintenance, operation and support of the School for Retarded Children of Pickaway County, Ohio.

Said tax being: a renewal of an existing tax at a rate not exceeding .1 of one mill for each one dollar of valuation, which amounts to one cent ($.01) for each one hundred dollars of valuation, for the period of ten (10) years and that said levy be placed upon the tax lists and duplicate of the year 1977, to be collected commencing with the year 1978.

immediately, and would halt the banding of birds for study purposes because the birds must first be caught in some manner, thereby causing fright, or "suffering."

This is a phoney issue, say members of the Ohio Committee for Humane Trapping, the organization responsible for getting the proposal on the ballot.

Moose traps would not be banned because they are intended to kill immediately, they contend. And that's the key to interpreting language in the amendment, said committee president Sandy Rowland. Any trap that was "intended to kill the animal as soon as possible" would be permissible, said Ms. Rowland, who prefers that honorific.

The Department of Natural Resources opposes the proposal, contending that the leghold trap is a needed tool in effective wildlife management.

Wildlife Division Chief Dale Haney says trapping is "essential to wildlife management." And he called the proposed ban "a threat to our ability to manage the wildlife resource."

Among the organizations backing the proposal are the Society for Animal Protective Legislation, Defenders of Wildlife, the Humane Society of the United States, the International Fund for Animal Welfare and the World Federation for Protection of Animals. Some of the organizations have contributed funds to help the Ohio group in its work to gain passage of the proposal.

Opponents include the Wildlife Legislative Fund, Ohioans for Wildlife Conservation, United Conservation Clubs of Ohio, and the Ohio Farm Bureau Federation.

The ballot explanation of Issue 2 describes leghold traps as being "designed to close on the leg of an animal and prevent its escape until the trapper returns."

It says that while use of such traps would be a crime "no penalty is prescribed."

The arguments for the amendment are listed thus: "1. Banning the leghold trap could be a major step toward wildlife preservation in Ohio. "2. It would eliminate needless suffering of animals and wild birds. Many trappers do not check their traps often enough.

"3. It would eliminate the possibility of humans or domestic animals being caught in these traps.

"4. The amendment would not prohibit killing of wildlife, but would only prevent the leghold trap being used to catch wildlife."

The arguments against the amendment:

"1. The amendment would stop selective trapping needed to control rats, disease, property damage and research.

"2. Selective trapping is needed to keep fast breeding animals from taking over the habitat and food needed by other wildlife.

"3. Instant-kill traps and poison would have to replace the leghold trap and would kill pets and wildlife.

"4. Wildlife regulations need to change with new knowledge and do not belong in the Constitution. Only basic fundamental principles of state government should be in the Constitution."

A "Yes" vote would amend the Ohio Constitution to include Article 19, making use of leghold traps in the state a crime.

A "No" vote is to reject adoption of the proposed amendment.

Jackson Proves Value To Team

By WILL GRIMLEY
AP Special Correspondent

Okay, Reggie, you have proven your point. Let no man say otherwise. You are indeed the straw that stirs the drink. You are the eye of the storm. You are the spark that firms the ignition. You make things happen.

Let it be your monument in history: The ball player who never hit .300 in a regular season yet the man who could always reach back for that special kind of magic that turns paupers into kings.

Even your once-bitter rival, Thurman Munson, had to admit it.

"Without him," said Munson, "we wouldn't have won the pennant. Without him, we wouldn't have won the World Series."

Such is the story of the baseball life of Reginald Martinez Jackson, the Wyncote, Pa., tailor's son whose ability to produce under pressure sparked the Oakland A's to World Championships in 1972, 1973 and 1974.

Now you have done it for the proud and haughty New York Yankees, just as your boss and benefactor, George Steinbrenner III, said you would.

A record five home runs in the World Series, three in one game, four in four official atbats, 10 runs scored, eight runs batted in, a .450 batting average — an individual performance on a level with the immortals.

"The word superstar is overused — Ruth, DiMaggio, Mays, Clemente," you told reporters modestly. "But I can say I had one day like those guys."

Indeed you did. But it wasn't easy. Remember all those lonely, frustrating moments during the summer.

You were the "Teacher's Pet." The boss took you in his limousine and showed you the town. He signed you to a $2.9-million contract.

This made you the most unpopular man in the Yankees clubhouse. Munson, the Most Valuable Player of the previous year, got mad when you told a magazine writer that you were "the straw that stirred the drink." You said Munson could only stir it bad.

It was an undiplomatic thing to say, but you are not diplomatic. You say what comes to your tongue. No subtleties. No deviousness. You take the consequences. The consequences were costly.

Munson refused to shake your hand. Third baseman Graig Nettles made unhappy noises. Players with the same color of dark skin moved their lockers to the other side of the room.

There you sat, alone and brooding, on your locker stool — not liked by the manager and ignored by almost everyone but backup catcher Fran Healy, whose friendship never wavered.

The manager, accustomed to center stage, resented you. He wouldn't bat you cleanup. Once he yanked you in front of a national television audience and, when you objected to the indignity, the two of you almost came to blows in the dugout.

Yet it was you who interceded when the manager was about to be fired. You helped save his job.

It was an agonizing summer.

The fans were goaded by a hostile press. They booed you at every turn. Pressures, even with your princely salary, became almost unbearable. Your father quit coming up from Philadelphia to watch you play. Your mother wouldn't turn on the radio.

Remember how you sat in your loneliness and said to yourself, "Why do I have to take all of this stuff? I have a good job waiting for me outside."

Quitting would have been easy, but it was not your way. It was a word you didn't know. You owed too much to too many, so you stuck it out.

You were "Mister September" in the Yankees' fierce pennant drive. You closed your lips and tightened the grip on your bat. You became the Yankees' spark-plug, and everybody knew it. Your life changed.

And the climax came just before 11 p.m. on a chill Tuesday night when you propelled your third home run of the evening into the black-painted unoccupied bleachers in deep center field.

And out there in center field somewhere, the TV cameras zeroed in on a bronze plaque of the great Babe Ruth. The old Bambino seemed to wear a smile.

Hayes Pulls No Punches

CHICAGO (AP) — Woody Hayes didn't pull any punches.

When asked about Ohio State's football clash with Big Ten rival Northwestern this Saturday, Hayes said flatly, "We are going to beat them." Northwestern has lost 22 of its last 23 games. Hayes cannot conceive of his Buckeyes becoming Northwestern's first victim of the season — and said so in a telephone interview with the Chicago Football Writers Tuesday.

"They could do it if we allowed them, but we're not going to allow them to beat us," said Woody. "Not only will we be prepared but we have better football players and more of them. For that reason we'll win."

"I have great respect for John Pont as a coach and had him as a player in college and wouldn't take him lightly," said Hayes. "He has done a creditable job in spite of not winning."

Hayes is especially pleased with his Ohio State defense despite a loneone-point loss to Oklahoma.

"Our defense throttled Oklahoma for three quarters after Oklahoma had a great start," said Hayes. "Our offense lost that game with fumbles. Then we went to SMU and hit a fellow who had a hot hand and we intercepted seven times."

"Then we went against Purdue which has an equally good passer and did a good job. Iowa has a good football team and our defense stopped them for 58 minutes," said Hayes.

"We have 16 interceptions because we play the ball," continued Woody. "We have depth and spirit—all in all we have a doggone good defense."

Hayes said his players are unconcerned when he sends in the reserves and Ohio State loses what might have been shutout.

"The other youngsters deserve a chance to play and it's good for squad morale."

What about Northwestern's morale?
"That's no problem," said Pont. "Our players will be ready to play. We've been an up and down team this season and this should be our down week after a good game at Minnesota, but I'm not expecting that. I think it will be an interesting game."

Chocolate was brought to Europe by the invaders of Mexico, under the leadership of Hernando Cortes, around 1519.

Pros And Cons Of Issue 2

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Passage of Issue 2 on the November ballot would make use of leghold traps in Ohio a crime. It also would permit anyone to seek an injunction to stop a violation of the ban and to recover court costs and attorney fees.

Proponents of the issue, who got it on the ballot through initiative petition, say leghold traps are cruel and unnecessary and can be replaced with so-called quick-kill traps.

Those fighting passage disagree, saying the leghold trap is needed for predator control and to fight disease, as well as for the $8 million raw fur business in Ohio — the second largest state income from fur trapping in the nation.

The proposed amendment reads this way:

"1. To prohibit any person from using in this state leghold traps in the trapping of wild birds or wild four-legged animals (quadrupeds) and also to prohibit any person from using any trapping device in a manner which will cause continued prolonged suffering to such birds or animals;

"2. To provide that each separate violation of this amendment is a crime; and

"3. To provide that any person may bring a civil action for injunction to stop a violation and to recover costs and attorneys' fees."

Opponents argue that the wording of the proposal would outlaw all trapping because "continued, prolonged suffering" covers any action in which a wild bird or wild animal is held against its will; includes household traps, because mice have four legs and are wild and such traps don't always kill

"4. The amendment would not prohibit killing of wildlife, but would only prevent the leghold trap being used to catch wildlife."

The arguments against the amendment:

"1. The amendment would stop selective trapping needed to control rats, disease, property damage and research."

"2. Selective trapping is needed to keep fast breeding animals from taking over the habitat and food needed by other wildlife."

"3. Instant-kill traps and poison would have to replace the leghold trap and would kill pets and wildlife."

"4. Wildlife regulations need to change with new knowledge and do not belong in the Constitution. Only basic fundamental principles of state government should be in the Constitution."

A "Yes" vote would amend the Ohio Constitution to include Article 19, making use of leghold traps in the state a crime.

A "No" vote is to reject adoption of the proposed amendment.

Circleville City Police Sgt. William Pontious recovered stolen property belonging to Herrstein Motor Co., 26 W. Water St., Chillicothe, after apprehending a man at Jenkins Sunoco at 11:25 p.m. Tuesday. Alvin C. Clark, Columbus, was charged with petit theft and receiving and concealing stolen property.

Pontious received a call from the Sunoco Station, 320 W. Main St. at 11:52 p.m. from Ron Caldwell.

Caldwell advised that a man drove into the service station and asked for $2 worth of gasoline.

The man then pulled to the gas pump and said, "Fill it up."

Local Red Cross Representatives Attend Meeting

Four representatives of Pickaway County Chapter, American Red Cross attended the Fall District Meeting of the Central Ohio Blood Program on Thursday at the Marriott Inn in Columbus.

Mrs. William Clendenin, chairman, outlined the importance of every chapter meeting the goal of at least 150 units of blood at every visit of the Bloodmobile. Goals are based on the demonstrated needs of the 51 hospitals in the region and failure of any chapter to reach the goal can result in postponed surgeries, causing extra expense as well as inconvenience for patients and their families.

Blood Center staff conducted workshops which introduced new procedures, new equipment and recruitment tools to assist chapters with their responsibility in helping to provide the blood needs of all residents of their communities.

Among other things, it was learned that new light weight reclining chairs will soon be a part of the Bloodmobile equipment so that it will no longer be necessary for donors to lie flat on the folding tables. If LE Levy Fails, School Faces Shutdown Next Year

"If the Logan Elm operating levy fails to pass this November — providing there is no significant growth in valuation and no additional monies are forthcoming from the State Foundation Program — the Logan Elm School District will not be able to finish the first half of the 1978-1979 school year." This is the grim message presented by the members of the Logan Elm Board of Education and Superintendent John Henn as they continue in their effort to fully inform the Logan Elm taxpayers about the upcoming 3.5 mill operating levy.

Recently Laurelville, Pickaway and Washington PTOs were apprised of the many factors which created the need for additional operating funds. The critical areas covered in the presentations were those of inflation, legislative mandates, purposes for which the millage will be used and many others which were covered through questions from the audience.

It was pointed out that, inflation to the Logan Elm School District means, fuel oil which has risen in cost 191 percent, gasoline 105 percent and electrical bills serving the same buildings with approximately the same usage, have climbed in the last six years to an estimated staggering 528 percent.

In regard to the increasing number of costly mandates which are directed to administrations and boards by the courts, the federal government and the state legislature, there have been twenty three in the past year, all without funding to pay for them, thereby creating a greater financial bind on the school district.

It was emphasized that the requested additional millage is to pay for the day to day operating school expenses and not for any new or additional programs or staff. To keep the schools open and in operation, is at this point, the primary concern. Passage of the 3.5 mill operating levy on Nov. 8 will guarantee the Logan Elm School District its much needed funds in 1978.

Attempting to use every avenue of communication with the Logan Elm residents a hot-line will be established on Oct. 26 and Nov. 2 from 7-9 p.m. At this time any question pertaining to the Logan Elm Schools and the levy may be answered by calling 474-8324.

Goals are based on the demonstrated needs of the 51 hospitals in the region and failure of any chapter to reach the goal can result in postponed surgeries, causing extra expense as well as inconvenience for patients and their families.

Blood Center staff conducted workshops which introduced new procedures, new equipment and recruitment tools to assist chapters with their responsibility in helping to provide the blood needs of all residents of their communities.

Among other things, it was learned that new light weight reclining chairs will soon be a part of the Bloodmobile equipment so that it will no longer be necessary for donors to lie flat on the folding tables. Speakers and slide presentations are available for local organizations desiring program materials for meetings.

Mrs. Pat Clark and Mrs. Charles M. Ried, Red Cross Volunteers and Mrs. Fred Tammany and Mrs. Roliff Wolford of the Chapter staff attended the meeting.

Ashville Senior Citizens Club Meets At Church

The Ashville Senior Citizens Club met at the Tri Village Methodist Church where games and fellowship were enjoyed in the morning. At noon sack lunches and coffee were served. Vera Sanders have the invocation.

Harold Fisher, vice president presided over the meeting. Discussions were of crime prevention and how senior citizens must be aware and protect themselves.

The Pickaway Senior Center Hospitality Center will be at the Community Methodist Church, during the Pumpkin Show many crafts the Ashville members have made for the craft sale.

The group voted to have a carry-in dinner for the November meeting with three members baking chicken and dressing.

For the program Francell Cromley and Ruth Pontius gave us a travelogue tour through pictures and explaining the places they toured in Hawaii. Leona Berger also was on the tour with them.

If LE Levy Fails, School Faces Shutdown Next Year

"If the Logan Elm operating levy fails to pass this November — providing there is no significant growth in valuation and no additional monies are forthcoming from the State Foundation Program — the Logan Elm School District will not be able to finish the first half of the 1978-1979 school year." This is the grim message presented by the members of the Logan Elm Board of Education and Superintendent John Henn as they continue in their effort to fully inform the Logan Elm taxpayers about the upcoming 3.5 mill operating levy.

Recently Laurelville, Pickaway and Washington PTOs were picked up of the many factors which created the need for additional operating funds. The critical areas covered in the presentations were those of inflation, legislative mandates, purposes for which the millage will be used and many others which were covered through questions from the audience.

It was pointed out that, inflation to the Logan Elm School District means, fuel oil which has risen in cost 191 percent, gasoline 105 percent and electrical bills serving the same buildings with approximately the same usage, have climbed in the last six years to an estimated staggering 528 percent.

In regard to the increasing number of costly mandates which are directed to administrations and boards by the courts, the federal government and the state legislature, there have been twenty three in the past year, all without funding to pay for them, thereby creating a greater financial bind on the school district.

It was emphasized that the requested additional millage is to pay for the day to day operating school expenses and not for any new or additional programs or staff. To keep the schools open and in operation, is at this point, the primary concern. Passage of the 3.5 mill operating levy on Nov. 8 will guarantee the Logan Elm School District its much needed funds in 1978.

Attempting to use every avenue of communication with the Logan Elm residents a hot-line will be established on Oct. 26 and Nov. 2 from 7-9 p.m. At this time any question pertaining to the Logan Elm Schools and the levy may be answered by calling 474-8324.

Four Brownies Welcomed To Club

By candlelight, the Brownies of Nicholas Drive Elementary School, Troop 689, held their Investiture ceremony, Oct. 16. Four new brownies were welcomed into the Girl Scout Family. They were Elizabeth Barber, Heidi Kirk, Brenda Krumenaker, and Shauna Starky.

Parents watched as the girls were each asked what they had done to earn their Brownie status. The new girls were individually presented by a Brownie sister to their leader, "Sunny" (Martha Kirk). She placed two pins on each Brownie uniform—the Brownie pin, and the World Association pin. Song and refreshment followed. The ceremony was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Barber.

Brownie sisters in attendance were: Jenny Adams, Mary Geddis, Holly Kirk, Lisa Mace, Kellie McCain, Julie Meyer, Angie Ohr, "Cricket" (Donna Krumenaker, Assistant Leaders,) and "Firefly" (Janet Barber, Assistant Leader.)
